Carolina Signs And Wonders Expands Services to Meet Growing Demand for Custom Business Signage

October 02, 2025

CHARLOTTE, NC - October 02, 2025 -
Carolina Signs And Wonders, a full-service Sign Company serving North and South Carolina, announces expanded capabilities in custom commercial signage production and installation to address increased demand from businesses seeking professional branding solutions.

The expansion comes as businesses across the Carolinas recognize the critical role that professional signage plays in establishing brand identity and attracting customers. Carolina Signs And Wonders has enhanced its production facilities and broadened its service offerings to include advanced LED lighting options, ADA-compliant signage, and specialized monument signs for commercial properties.

"Businesses today understand that their signage represents their first impression to potential customers," said Todd Golbus, spokesperson for Carolina Signs And Wonders. "Our expanded services allow us to deliver comprehensive signage solutions from initial design through installation, repair, and replacement, ensuring that each client receives exactly what they need to stand out in their market."

The company specializes in creating Business Signs tailored to specific industry requirements, including restaurant signs, retail signs, and real estate signs. Their comprehensive approach encompasses everything from traditional cabinet signs and channel letters to modern acrylic signs and vinyl graphics.

Carolina Signs And Wonders manages the entire signage process, from initial consultation and design to installation. Their teams handle projects of all sizes, including building signs, outdoor signs, indoor signs, pole signs, pylon signs, and post-panel signs. The company also provides ongoing maintenance services, including sign repair and replacement, to keep business signage in optimal condition.

The expanded services address the diverse needs of commercial clients throughout the region. Beyond standard business signage, the company produces specialized solutions such as awning signs, blade signs, and custom monument signs. Their ADA sign services ensure businesses meet compliance requirements while maintaining their brand aesthetic.

"We recognize that effective signage goes beyond simply displaying a business name," added Golbus. "Our team works closely with each client to understand their specific goals, whether they need to promote special events, highlight new products, or simply increase their visibility to passing traffic." The company serves businesses throughout North and South Carolina, including Charlotte, Concord, Gastonia, Rock Hill, Spartanburg, and numerous surrounding communities.

Carolina Signs And Wonders continues to offer free consultations and quotes for businesses exploring new signage options. The company maintains a comprehensive portfolio of sign types and styles, enabling them to match any architectural design or branding requirement. Their production capabilities include both illuminated and non-illuminated options, with LED and neon lighting available to enhance visibility during evening hours.

Carolina Signs And Wonders is a full-service signage company providing custom commercial signs to businesses throughout North and South Carolina. The company offers complete signage solutions, including design, production, installation, repair, and replacement services. Their extensive capabilities cover all types of commercial signage, from traditional storefront signs to modern digital displays, serving businesses across multiple industries with professional, durable, and effective signage solutions.
