Leven Rose, a business in Colorado Springs, CO, is proud to announce the launch of their Kukui Nut Oil. This cold pressed, unrefined, 100% natural oil is already proving to be very popular. More details can be attained here about the Leven Rose Kukui Nut Oil.

Courtney Olson from Leven Rose says: "We are committed to offering the best, natural, organic oils to enhance their personal health and beauty. One of our latest products, the Kukui Nut Oil, will do just that, helping to tame frizzy hair, making it feel soft, glossy and beautiful. We're so happy to see that our customers are loving it already."

Kukui Nut Oil is an ancient Hawaiian oil that is used to treat hair and skin. It is believed that it helps to lock in moisture, providing protection from heat. This Leven Rose oil can be mixed with shampoo and conditioner to obtain soft glossy hair. It can also be added to lotions and moisturizers to provide various benefits for the skin. People can even add a few drops to their bath to provide a calming experience and a number health benefits to the skin. Kukui nut oil contains vitamins A, C and E, which are all considered to be essential for healthy, youthful skin.

Those who have tried the product have been overwhelmingly positive about their experience. "I have been using this Kukui Nut Oil as an additive in my conditioner," says Eden S. "I have become a big fan of argan oil lately and until recently, not many people had heard of the oil. So I thought maybe this might be the next up and coming hair secret that starts making waves. To be honest, so far it seems to be a winner. I have added a few dropper fulls to my conditioner bottle and have noticed that brushing my hair, even when it is still wet, is considerably easier."
