Cumming and Johns Creek Window Treatment Company Announces Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

October 06, 2025

Cumming, Georgia - October 06, 2025 -
Bloomin' Blinds of Cumming and Johns Creek will hold an official ribbon-cutting ceremony on October 9 at 11 a.m. at Because Coffee, located at 240 Dawson Village Way North, Suite 100, in Dawsonville, Georgia. The event is hosted by the Dawson County Chamber of Commerce.

The ceremony officially welcomes this female-owned, family-run custom window-treatment company to Johns Creek. Bloomin? Blinds of Cumming and Johns Creek serves homes and businesses with custom blinds, shades, shutters, drapery, and exterior patio screens and awnings throughout Cumming, Johns Creek, Alpharetta, Ball Ground, Dawsonville, and nearby communities.

Bloomin' Blinds of Cumming and Johns Creek operates as a mobile showroom business, bringing product samples directly to customers' homes for consultations. The company provides custom blinds, shades, and shutters in Cumming and Johns Creek for windows of various sizes and shapes.

The ribbon cutting ceremony will include complimentary beverages and pastries for the first ten customers to sign up for a free consultation. Attendees will also have a chance to enjoy a variety of giveaways. Chamber members, local business representatives, and community members are expected to attend the morning event.

"This ribbon-cutting ceremony with the Dawson County Chamber represents an important milestone for our business operations in North Georgia," said Ashley Sasher, a representative of Bloomin' Blinds of Cumming and Johns Creek. "This recognition by the Chamber reflects our ongoing commitment to serving homeowners throughout Dawson County and surrounding areas."

The company's service area includes Alpharetta, Cumming, Ball Ground, Dawsonville, and Johns Creek. The product offerings encompass various window treatment options in different fabrics, colors, and patterns. The business also provides motorization and smart home integration capabilities for window coverings, allowing automated operation through pre-programmed scheduling.

Additional information about the ribbon-cutting ceremony is available through the Dawson County Chamber of Commerce website. Those interested in the company's window treatment services can visit BloominBlinds.com/Cumming-GA.

"The October 9 event at Because Coffee provides an opportunity for local business owners and residents to learn more about our mobile showroom approach and window treatment services," added Sasher. "The Chamber's support has been valuable as we establish our presence in the Dawson County business community."
