

Cornerstone Homebuyers Miami Cash Offer Acquisition Receives A Five-Star Review

October 21, 2025

MIAMI, FL - October 21, 2025 -
Cornerstone Homebuyers announced today that it received a five-star Google review from a Miami homeowner who praised the company's transparent approach and professional service. The review, posted in late September 2025, highlights the customer experience that has contributed to the company's great Google rating.

Katia A., a Miami homeowner, stated in her review, "From start to finish, Cornerstone Homebuyers exceeded our expectations! Ellie was professional, compassionate, and honest about every step. Compared to other companies we spoke with, they gave us a great offer on our house and made the entire experience easy. I'm so glad we chose them!" Homeowners can read Katia's Miami seller review of Cornerstone Homebuyers here.

The review reflects consumer demand for transparent cash home buying companies in Florida. Miami represents 38% of Florida home sales completed with cash according to Florida REALTORS February 2025 data, while neighboring West Palm Beach leads the nation at 49% cash sales. The trend toward cash transactions continues as Florida homeowners seek certainty and speed when trying to sell a house quickly.

"We're honored to receive feedback like this from homeowners we've worked with," said Ellie Verdura, Founder and CEO of Cornerstone Homebuyers. "Our commitment to honest communication isn't just about completing transactions?it's about helping people through what can be a stressful time. When customers compare us to other cash home buyers and choose to work with us, that trust means everything to our team."

Cornerstone Homebuyers celebrated a 16-year milestone in May 2025, completing over 500 transactions throughout Florida. The company typically provides a cash offer for houses within 24 hours and typically closes transactions in 7?21 days. The company typically covers standard seller closing costs and purchases homes in as is condition, eliminating the need for home repairs or showings.

"We're grateful when customers like Katia take time to share their experiences," Verdura continued. "Reviews like this validate our commitment to treating every homeowner with compassion and respect throughout the entire selling process. Whether someone needs to sell due to divorce, job relocation, or financial circumstances, the company focuses on making the experience as smooth as possible."

The five-star review reflects the company's approach to handling diverse property situations. Cornerstone Homebuyers has worked with homeowners trying to avoid foreclosure, managing inherited properties, navigating code violations and unsafe structures, and dealing with homes requiring significant repairs throughout its 16 years in business.

The review highlights what previous customers have also praised in testimonials on the company website. Common themes include transparent communication and streamlined processes that eliminate the stress typically associated with selling properties in challenging circumstances. The company's positive Google rating demonstrates consistent customer satisfaction across various property situations and of those wanting to sell a property fast.

Customer feedback frequently mentions the company's ability to handle complex property situations that traditional buyers avoid. These include homes with code violations, properties requiring probate, houses with fire or hurricane damage, and properties facing foreclosure. A direct cash purchase eliminate common obstacles such as buyer financing contingencies, appraisals, and inspection-based renegotiations that can delay traditional sales.

The company typically covers standard seller closing costs and purchases through an as is home sale regardless of condition, allowing sellers to avoid contractor expenses and repairs. Homeowners can request evaluations through the company website or by phone consultation.

The review comes as Florida continues to lead the nation in cash home sales. According to Florida REALTORS February 2025 data, several Florida markets rank among the highest for cash transactions nationally, with West Palm Beach at 49 percent, Jacksonville at 46.2 percent, and Miami at 38 percent. The trend toward cash sales creates opportunities for companies like Cornerstone Homebuyers that specialize in fast closing.
