Five Little Monkeys Brings Premium Bounce House and Water Slide Rentals to 40+ Michigan Communities

November 12, 2025

LIVONIA, MI - November 12, 2025 -
Five Little Monkeys,a party equipment rental company based in Southeast Michigan, has reached 360 customer reviews with a 4.9-star average rating across major review platforms, according to the company's verified business profiles.

The milestone comes as the company has expanded its delivery network to serve more than 40 communities across the Metro Detroit region, including Wayne, Oakland, Livingston, and Washtenaw counties.

"We started serving a handful of communities and have grown based on customer demand," said Amid Kharbush."The review milestone reflects our focus on equipment maintenance and delivery reliability."

Five Little Monkeys provides inflatable party equipment, including bounce houses, water slides, and obstacle courses for residential parties, school events, and corporate functions. The company reports that water slide rentals increased a good bit this past summer compared to the previous year.

According to industry data from the Outdoor Amusement Business Association, the party rental industry in

Michigan has grown approximately 12% annually since 2020, driven by increased demand for outdoor entertainment options

The company implements a standard cleaning and inspection protocol for all equipment between rentals, following guidelines established by industry safety organizations. Equipment undergoes visual inspection and cleaning with commercial-grade sanitizers before each deployment.

A customer who recently rented equipment for a school fundraiser noted that "the setup process was efficient and the staff explained the safety requirements clearly."

Five Little Monkeys charges a $29 delivery fee and a $149 minimum order across its service territory. The company maintains a fleet of delivery vehicles to reach communities throughout the four-county region.

Service areas include major population centers such as Birmingham, Farmington Hills, Livonia, Novi, Plymouth, Southfield, and Troy, among others. A complete list of service communities is available on the company's website.

The party rental sector in Michigan faces increased competition from national chains and local operators. Five Little Monkeys differentiates its service through same-day booking availability during peak season and extended operating hours
