

Neal & Solevilla Personal Injury Lawyers Emphasize Critical Legal Support for Drunk Driving Accident Victims

October 27, 2025

Clearwater, FL - October 27, 2025 -

Neal & Solevilla Personal Injury Lawyers, a Clearwater-based personal injury firm, continues to provide comprehensive legal representation for victims of drunk driving accidents throughout Florida. The firm emphasizes the importance of experienced legal advocacy for those injured by impaired drivers, particularly as drunk driving remains a persistent threat on Florida roads.

Drunk driving accidents often result in catastrophic injuries and complex legal challenges that require specialized expertise. The firm's attorneys focus on helping victims navigate the intricate legal process while pursuing maximum compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, and long-term care needs.

"Drunk driving accidents are entirely preventable tragedies that devastate families and communities," said Katherine C. Neal, founding partner at Neal & Solevilla Personal Injury Lawyers. "Victims face not only physical recovery but also mounting medical bills and insurance company tactics designed to minimize payouts. Our role is to level the playing field and ensure victims receive the compensation they deserve while holding impaired drivers accountable for their choices."

Neal & Solevilla Personal Injury Lawyers handle drunk driving injury cases including traumatic brain injuries, spinal cord damage, and wrongful death claims. The firm's approach combines thorough investigation, strategic negotiation with insurance companies, and aggressive litigation when necessary to protect clients' interests.

The legal team understands that drunk driving accidents often involve multiple liable parties beyond the impaired driver. Establishments that overserve alcohol, employers who allow intoxicated employees to drive company vehicles, and social hosts who provide alcohol to minors may share responsibility under Florida's dram shop and social host liability laws.

Recent statistics from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration indicate that approximately 30 percent of all traffic-related deaths in the United States involve drunk drivers. In Florida, impaired driving contributes to hundreds of fatalities and thousands of injuries annually, underscoring the ongoing need for strong legal advocacy for victims.

The firm's comprehensive approach includes coordinating with medical professionals to document injuries, working with accident reconstruction experts to establish liability, and calculating both current and future damages to ensure adequate compensation. This thorough preparation strengthens cases whether they settle through negotiation or proceed to trial.

Neal & Solevilla Personal Injury Lawyers maintains a practice focused exclusively on personal injury law, including representation for car accidents, motorcycle accidents, trucking accidents, and other catastrophic injury cases. The firm's attorneys, Katherine C. Neal and Melissa D. Solevilla, bring extensive experience in personal injury litigation to each case they handle.

The firm serves clients throughout the Clearwater area and surrounding Florida communities, offering personalized attention and dedicated advocacy for individuals and families affected by negligent and reckless driving. Their practice encompasses various aspects of personal injury law, including premise liability, rideshare accidents, and wrongful death claims, providing comprehensive legal support for accident victims seeking justice and fair compensation.
