

Arrowhead Clinic Expands Weekend Access for Auto Accident Victims with Saturday Hours

October 20, 2025

Peachtree City, Georgia - October 20, 2025 -
Arrowhead Clinic, a leading provider of chiropractic care for auto accident victims with 17 locations across Georgia, has expanded weekend accessibility at six Metro Atlanta locations to ensure accident victims receive timely treatment when traditional medical offices are closed. The clinics in Decatur, Duluth, Marietta, McDonough, Midtown Atlanta and Riverdale now offer Saturday hours, addressing a critical gap in post-accident care availability.

The expanded weekend schedule responds to the reality that auto accidents occur seven days a week, yet most medical facilities operate on traditional weekday schedules. This timing mismatch often leaves accident victims waiting days for treatment, potentially worsening their injuries and complicating their recovery process. With over 48 years of experience treating accident-related injuries, Arrowhead Clinic walk in chiropractic clinics have developed a comprehensive approach that eliminates these unnecessary delays.

"Auto accident injuries require immediate attention regardless of when they occur," said Dr. Harry Brown,

Chief Medical Officer at Arrowhead Clinic. "By offering Saturday hours at our key Metro Atlanta locations, we ensure that patients who are injured in Friday evening or weekend accidents can receive proper evaluation and treatment without waiting until Monday. This immediate care approach significantly improves recovery outcomes and helps prevent chronic pain conditions from developing."

The Saturday availability particularly benefits working professionals who cannot take time off during the week for medical appointments. Many accident victims attempt to push through pain to maintain their work schedules, inadvertently allowing injuries to worsen. Weekend access removes this barrier, enabling patients to receive necessary chiropractic adjustments, diagnostic evaluations and treatment planning without disrupting their employment obligations.

Arrowhead Clinic's integrated treatment model combines immediate pain relief with comprehensive documentation support for insurance and legal purposes. The clinic maintains an established network of personal injury attorneys, providing same-day referrals when legal representation is needed. This coordination between medical treatment and legal support means patients typically pay nothing out of pocket for their chiropractic care, as treatment costs are often covered through eventual settlement agreements or insurance claims.

The clinic specializes in treating common accident-related conditions including whiplash, soft tissue injuries, spinal misalignments and chronic pain resulting from vehicle collisions. Each location accepts walk-in patients, eliminating the need for appointments and further reducing barriers to accessing care. Patients can find all location details and hours at https://www.arrowheadclinic.com/locations to identify the most convenient clinic for their needs.

Over the past four decades, Arrowhead Clinic has treated more than 400,000 patients and earned over 5,000 five-star reviews from individuals who have benefited from their integrated treatment approach. The expansion of Saturday hours at strategic Metro Atlanta locations represents the clinic's ongoing commitment to removing traditional barriers to post-accident care and ensuring that all accident victims have access to timely, professional chiropractic treatment when they need it most.
