The Nook in Rapid City, SD Supports Community Wellness Event at The Monument

The Nook, a full-service massage therapy, skincare and waxing studio based in Rapid City, is proud to announce its support of the upcoming wellness event ? the Self-Care City Scavenger Hunt on Saturday, November 8, 2025 at The Monument in Rapid City.

The wellness event invites residents of the Black Hills region to engage in a fun and health-focused scavenger hunt, exploring local self-care options and lifestyle habits. The Nook supports this initiative because it aligns with the studio?s mission of promoting holistic well-being, education and accessible self-care.

?We believe that wellness isn?t a luxury, it?s a community investment,? said Kimberly Landsman, owner of The Nook. ?By supporting this scavenger hunt event, we?re encouraging everyone in Rapid City and surrounding areas to explore the many dimensions of well-being from therapeutic massage to organic skincare and to make self-care a regular part of life.?

While The Nook will not host a booth or provide services at the event, the studio encourages attendees to consider massage, skin health and waxing as meaningful elements of a balanced wellness routine. The event organizer?s choice of venue is The Monument which is especially relevant, since it serves as a regional anchor for large-scale gatherings and community wellness initiatives.
