March 14, 2016

March 14, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fort Myers, Florida based Alchemy Digital Media has announced the launch of additional WordPress themes that can be used by local businesses. These new themes bring the company's total to 25 local niches.

The company currently offers a number of niche themes for local businesses in a wide range of varying industries. The new niches include fencing, beauty spa, mobile pet spa, accident attorney, and gym. The company states that all WordPress themes for local businesses come complete with well written content and commercially licensed images, and each theme includes a plugin for customer reviews and telephone tracking.

Earl Gardner, owner and CEO of Alchemy Digital Media states, "Since the initial launch of ADM Local Business Pro in July 2015, the response by marketers has been phenomenal. Marketers are able to create a fully created website, complete with copy and images within 8 minutes of installing WordPress."

The company has indicated that customers appreciate the ease of use that comes along with the WP themes and that they have received massive positive response since they initially released the first theme some time ago. They offer a number of options regarding licensing as well. "Although monthly subscriptions are currently closed, we plan on re-opening that option on May 1st, 2016. People can still purchase the licenses on a pay-as-you-need basis though," Gardner says.

Alchemy Digital Media is a full service web design and SEO company, offering a variety of services to meet a number of customer needs. They focus not on only the creation of websites, but also in helping businesses to market those sites in order to gain traffic, which ultimately means higher sales. The company provides a number of services related to website design, marketing, and lead generation.
