

In Stock Today Cabinets LLC Reports Rising Demand for RTA Shaker Blue Cabinets Amid Market Growth

November 11, 2025

ALEXANDRIA, VA - November 11, 2025 -
In Stock Today Cabinets LLC, an authorized distributor of Fabuwood and FIBO cabinetry brands, reports a 68 percent increase in customer inquiries for blue cabinet options over the past 12 months at its Alexandria, Virginia showroom. This local trend aligns with broader industry data showing the ready-to-assemble cabinet market projected to reach $20.3 billion globally by 2032, according to to independent analysis from DataIntelo.

The surge in blue cabinet preferences corresponds with findings from the National Kitchen & Bath Association's 2025 report, which documented that 63 percent of designers selected blue as a top color preference for the coming year. The Alexandria-based distributor has observed particularly strong interest in RTA Shaker Cabinets, with the Fabuwood Allure Luna Shaker Blue emerging as a frequently requested specification among homeowners and contractors throughout Northern Virginia.

"Over the past 12 months, we've documented a significant shift in customer preferences at our Alexandria showroom. Customers throughout the Northern Virginia region are requesting Shaker Blue specifically?we've seen a 68% increase in blue cabinet inquiries. The NKBA's data showing 63% of designers prefer blue aligns with what we're observing in our local market," said Emin Halac, CEO and Lead Designer at In Stock Today Cabinets LLC.

The growing preference for RTA Kitchen Cabinets reflects broader market dynamics, with the North American RTA market valued at $16.93 billion in 2024 and projected to reach $26.79 billion by 2032, according to Data Bridge Research. These cabinet systems deliver 30 to 50 percent cost savings compared to pre-assembled equivalents while reducing shipping volume by 40 percent, factors that appeal to cost-conscious consumers and environmentally aware buyers.

Shaker style cabinetry, dating to the late 18th century, continues to demonstrate enduring appeal through its recessed panel design and clean lines that complement traditional, transitional, and contemporary kitchen designs. The addition of blue finishes to this classic style addresses documented consumer preferences, with 71 percent of homeowners favoring colorful versus neutral kitchens and 28 percent of kitchen projects featuring blue cabinets in 2024-2025.

"For contractors, dealers and builders pursuing RTA assembly, Fabuwood's Allure Luna Shaker Blue pairs effectively with white quartz countertops and brass hardware. The RTA format reduces shipping costs by 40% and assembles in hours?convenient for our local customer base who value both quality and time efficiency. The RTA format offers a cost-effective alternative to custom-built options." Halac added.

The Fabuwood Shaker Cabinets distributed by IST Cabinets feature KCMA certification, Blum soft-close hardware, and dovetail drawer construction. Fabuwood has received the Kitchen & Bath Business Readers' Choice Award four times, indicating consistent quality recognition within the industry.
