

Heartbeatmuzic Voted Best Music Download Site In Nigeria

March 09, 2016

March 09, 2016 -
Heartbeatmuzic, an online company operating out of Rivers State, Nigeria, is proud to announce that they have been voted best music download site in Nigeria. This came after an online poll of music fans. Particularly, people were appreciative of the fact that the website always offers the latest music.

Hertbeatmuzic's Chris Obaino says: "We're so proud to have been awarded best download site for music in Nigeria. The music scene in this country is amazing, and some of our local artists are now getting international recognition. We are so happy to be able to play a part in that as well."

Another thing that was recognized by people who look for music to download, is that Heartbeatmuzic also offers an opportunity for people to promote their music. In so doing, they can get their tunes and songs out there. With the company being fully online, it means that they can instantly get international recognition. It is one of the best music promo opportunities out there, and one that is appreciated not just by musicians, but by music lovers as well.

Chris Obaino explained: "Making it big in the world of music has never been easier. Once upon a time, people had to be hopeful that they would be spotted while playing a gig somewhere. Now, everything is online. Listeners are online, talent scouts are online, and musicians are online. This is why we have so much current music nowadays as well. Heartbeatmuzic is about building a community of musicians and listeners, effectively flooding the world with the latest tunes."

Nigeria is home to a number of international artists, including D'Banj, who released 'Oliver Twist' together with Kanye West. Other famous artists include TuFace Idibia, Nneka Egbuna and P-Square. Some of them have been featured on Heartbeatmuzic.

The company is also keen to inform people of news about the music industry. "We want to encourage everybody to like us on Facebook," adds Chris Obaino. "We share lots of information here about up and coming musicians and other things to expect. Plus, it is an opportunity for people to talk to us about their experiences."
