November 17, 2025 -

750ml Wines in Akron will welcome Greg Brewer, Wine Enthusiast's 2020 Winemaker of the Year, for an exclusive wine tasting event on December 2nd. The evening will feature world-class wines from Brewer's acclaimed labels, including Brewer-Clifton, Diatom, and Ex Post Facto, offering wine enthusiasts an opportunity to meet one of California's influential winemakers.

Guests interested in learning more about the event can visit https://750mlwines.com/akron-events/greg-brewer-event/ for complete details and reservation information. Space for both experiences remains extremely limited.

Greg Brewer brings three decades of winemaking expertise to the Akron wine community. Known for his work in California's Sta. Rita Hills AVA, Brewer has earned international recognition for his commitment to terroir-driven wines and a minimal intervention winemaking philosophy.

"Having Greg Brewer visit our establishment represents an opportunity for wine lovers in Northeast Ohio to experience some of California's finest wines while learning directly from a master winemaker," said Lauren Carpeta, wine director at 750ml Wines. "His approach to winemaking has influenced an entire generation of vintners, and we're thrilled to bring this caliber of expertise to our guests."

The evening will offer two distinct experiences for attendees. The VIP Party beginning at 6 PM includes six premium bottles of wine to take home, an exclusive tree lighting ceremony with live carolers, a welcome glass of Diatom Chardonnay, guaranteed premium seating, and intimate access to Greg Brewer. General Seating at 7 PM provides three premium bottles to take home, a welcome glass of Diatom Chardonnay, opportunities to meet the winemaker, and full menu access.

The event aligns with 750ml Wines' reputation for creating memorable experiences, recently earning recognition as the Best Date Spot in Akron in Signal Akron's Best of City 2025 awards. The wine bar and restaurant has become known for its carefully curated wine selection, intimate atmosphere, and commitment to wine education through special events and tastings.

"Events like these demonstrate why we've become a destination for those seeking unique experiences," added Carpeta. "Whether guests are seasoned collectors or just beginning their wine journey, an evening with Greg Brewer offers insights and tastings that cannot be found elsewhere in our region."
