

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction Expands Comprehensive Home Exterior Services

December 04, 2025

PURDY, MO - December 04, 2025 -
Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction, a family-owned contractor serving Southwest Missouri, has expanded its comprehensive range of home exterior services to meet growing demand for professional roofing, siding, gutter, and insulation solutions throughout the region. The Purdy-based company now provides enhanced service coverage across Springfield, Aurora, Republic, Monett, and surrounding communities.

The expansion comes as homeowners throughout Southwest Missouri face increasing challenges from severe weather patterns and aging home infrastructure. The company's integrated approach combines traditional roofing expertise with modern spray foam insulation technology, offering property owners a single source for critical home protection services.

"Southwest Missouri homeowners deserve reliable contractors who understand both the immediate needs of storm damage repair and the long-term benefits of proper home protection," said Eric, a spokesperson from

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction. "Our expanded service capabilities allow us to address everything from emergency roof repairs to comprehensive energy efficiency improvements through spray foam insulation, providing families with complete peace of mind."

The company's service portfolio encompasses five core areas of home exterior maintenance and improvement. Roof installation services include detailed assessments and transparent pricing structures, utilizing premium materials designed to withstand Missouri's variable climate conditions. Repair services range from addressing minor leaks to complete storm damage restoration, with technicians available for emergency response situations.

Gutter services protect home foundations through proper water drainage systems, while siding installation enhances both aesthetic appeal and weather resistance. The addition of spray foam insulation services addresses growing concerns about energy efficiency, providing superior thermal performance that can significantly reduce heating and cooling costs for area homeowners.

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction Roofing Contractor maintains an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau, reflecting the company's commitment to quality workmanship and customer satisfaction. The organization provides free, no-obligation roof inspections to help property owners understand their options before committing to any service.

The expansion reflects broader trends in the home improvement industry, where property owners increasingly seek contractors capable of addressing multiple exterior maintenance needs. By offering integrated services, the company reduces the complexity homeowners face when coordinating multiple contractors for different projects.

Emergency response capabilities remain a cornerstone of the company's service model, with technicians available around the clock to address urgent roofing issues that can arise from severe weather events common to the Missouri region.

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction operates as a licensed and insured contractor throughout Southwest Missouri. The family-owned business has built its reputation on delivering professional workmanship while maintaining the personalized service approach that distinguishes local contractors from larger corporate entities. The company's comprehensive insurance coverage and proper licensing ensure that all work meets or exceeds regional building codes and industry standards.
