Milestone Church?s Christmas Candlelight Celebration is a long-standing and beloved tradition, filling each campus with candlelight, Christmas worship, and a message of hope that reflects the true meaning of the season. At Milestone Church McKinney, the campus?s warm and close-knit atmosphere makes this event especially meaningful for families and individuals seeking a moment of reflection and joy in the midst of the holiday season.

Each service is thoughtfully crafted to uplift and inspire, creating a memorable Christmas experience for attendees of every age. Milestone Kids will be available for children from birth through fifth grade during all McKinney Candlelight services, allowing parents to participate fully while their children enjoy an age-appropriate and festive Christmas program. This family-centered approach reflects Milestone

McKinney?s ongoing commitment to serving the community with care and hospitality.

Milestone Church McKinney welcomes both longtime attendees and first-time guests to this special holiday celebration. For those unable to attend in person, select services will be streamed online at milestonechurch.com/live, giving families a way to join the worship experience from home or while traveling during the holidays.

Planning a visit is simple through Milestone?s ?Plan Your Visit? page, which includes information on parking, Milestone Kids, service expectations, and more. Registration is not required for any Candlelight service, ensuring that everyone can attend freely and conveniently. Guests are encouraged to choose a service time that works best and come ready to experience a meaningful Christmas celebration with their community.

The Christmas Candlelight Celebration at Milestone Church McKinney is more than a seasonal gathering?it is a time of reflection, connection, and worship. As candlelight fills the room and familiar carols are sung, attendees are invited to pause and remember the hope, love, and joy that Christmas represents. Families in McKinney have made this celebration an annual tradition, finding it a meaningful way to enter the Christmas season with gratitude and peace.
