Thailand Privilege Announces Final Application Window for Bronze Membership and Family Card Promotion Ending December 2025

December 09, 2025

BANGKOK, Thailand - December 09, 2025 -
Thailand Privilege has issued its final reminder that the Bronze membership tier and the Family Add-On Promotion will permanently close to new applications on December 31, 2025. The announcement marks the last opportunity for prospective members to access these popular options before they are discontinued from the program's offerings.

The Bronze membership, which has served as the most accessible entry point into the Thailand Privilege visa program, offers a five-year multiple-entry visa for 650,000 THB. This tier was designed specifically for individuals seeking long-term residency convenience at a more affordable cost compared to the Gold, Platinum, Diamond, or Reserve membership levels.

Despite not including the Privilege Points system available in higher tiers, the Bronze membership retains essential VIP travel and lifestyle benefits. Members receive airport personal assistant services, expedited immigration support, and 90-day reporting assistance at the TPC head office in Sathorn. Additional benefits include bank account opening support, Member Contact Center access, and extensive partner discounts across hospitality and lifestyle sectors. The membership remains non-transferable and provides a practical long-stay solution for those prioritizing core airport and immigration privileges.

"The Bronze membership has consistently attracted individuals who value straightforward, long-term residency solutions without requiring the extensive point systems of our premium tiers," said Rex Baay, spokesperson for Thailand Privilege. "With the December deadline approaching, we are seeing increased interest from those who recognize this represents their final chance to secure this particular membership structure."

The Family Add-On Promotion, available exclusively for Platinum, Diamond, and Reserve tier members, allows family members to join at a significantly reduced fee of 500,000 THB. This represents substantial savings compared to standard add-on costs of 1,000,000 THB for Platinum, 1,500,000 THB for Diamond, and 2,000,000 THB for Reserve memberships.

Families utilizing this promotion gain access to comprehensive benefits, including expedited airport immigration, 90-day reporting support, and assistance opening Thai bank accounts. The package also encompasses health and wellness privileges, lifestyle perks, discounts across partner networks, and 24/7 Member Contact Center support. These benefits extend for 10, 15, or 20 years, depending on the main membership tier selected.

The promotion particularly suits families relocating to Thailand and households requiring reliable long-stay entry and exit privileges. Dependents of primary members can access shared benefits without paying full add-on rates, making it an attractive option for those planning extended stays in Thailand.

All applications and payments must be completed before December 31, 2025, to qualify for these offerings. Family members must meet standard eligibility requirements and provide appropriate relationship documentation. After the deadline, the Bronze tier will no longer be available, and family add-on rates will revert to their higher standard fees.

Thailand Privilege continues to operate as Thailand's premier long-term residency program, offering premium services, lifestyle benefits, and streamlined immigration support to international residents. The program maintains its commitment to providing various membership tiers tailored to different residency needs and investment levels.
