1st Family Dental Opens New Addison Dental Clinic

March 24, 2016

March 24, 2016 -
1st Family Dental has announced the opening of its eleventh Chicagoland dental clinic. The new clinic opened March 21st now accepting new patients is located in Addison, Illinois.

Vicky Khawaja from the dental group states, "We are so proud to be opening our Addison clinic. We will be providing the same quality dental care that our other Chicago area patients have been enjoying for many years."

The dental practice offers a number of services and treatments from oral exams and x-rays to orthodontics, root canals, teeth whitening, and pediatric dentistry. Khawaja states that the new Addison dental clinic will provide the same services that patients enjoy at their other ten locations.

"We are proud of the full range of dental services and procedures we provide," Khawaja states. "Our staff is friendly, patient oriented, and fully qualified for the specialties that we offer."

Among the dental practice's specialties are oral surgery, dental implants, and Invisalign, which is an invisible braces option that the dental practice states is very popular among teenagers and young adults. 1st Family Dental has been practicing for a number of years, and has always provided affordable dental care to patients, whether they have dental insurance or not.

The clinic states that they've built their brand on the belief that oral health is a necessity, not a luxury, and that it is vital for overall general health. Khawaja states that by opening a new clinic in Addison, they can continue to provide affordable and vital oral health care to patients who would otherwise not be able to make it to their other practice locations.

The practice also provides individual and family appointment options that are flexible for busy and working individuals, and offers 24 hour support with live professionals and dentists for emergencies as well as online booking for appointments and a private patient portal through their official website.

Those interested can visit the dental practice on their website to learn more about the specific dental care services that they offer as well as specific locations for their practice. The new office location in Addison is now accepting patient appointments.
