Rivera Tennis Academy Announces Winter Tennis Camp Sessions for Youth Players During Holiday Break

December 18, 2025

Spring, Texas - December 18, 2025 -
Rivera Tennis Academy has announced its winter tennis camp schedule for youth players during the upcoming holiday break, offering structured evening training sessions designed to maintain and enhance players' skills during the school recess. The Tennis Winter Camp in Spring, TX will run in two flexible weekly sessions from December 22nd through January 2nd.

The academy, led by former ATP and Davis Cup player Alfredo Rivera, has structured the winter camp to accommodate various family schedules during the holiday season. The first week of sessions will take place on December 22nd, 23rd, and 26th, while the second week runs from December 29th through January 2nd. All sessions are scheduled from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club facility.

"The holiday break presents a unique opportunity for young players to focus on their tennis development without the usual academic commitments," said Alfredo Rivera, Founder of Rivera Tennis Academy. "Our winter camp provides structured training that keeps players engaged and helps them maintain the momentum they've built throughout the fall season."

The Tennis Camp in Spring, TX offers multiple enrollment options to accommodate different family needs and schedules. Players can participate on a drop-in basis or commit to multi-day packages, with options ranging from three-day to eight-day programs. The flexible structure allows families to work around holiday travel plans while ensuring consistent training opportunities for dedicated players.

Rivera Tennis Academy has designed the winter camp curriculum to address fundamental skills while incorporating advanced techniques appropriate for various skill levels. The two-hour evening sessions focus on technical development, match play strategies, and conditioning exercises tailored to youth players. The academy's coaching methodology draws from Rivera's extensive experience as a professional player representing Chile in international competition.

The winter camp represents part of the academy's comprehensive approach to player development throughout the year. In addition to seasonal camps, the academy offers junior tennis lessons, kids tennis lessons, adult tennis lessons, private tennis lessons, elite tennis lessons, and specialized homeschool tennis programs. The academy also hosts local tournaments and leagues, providing competitive opportunities for players at all levels.

"Consistency in training is crucial for young tennis players, especially those with competitive aspirations," added Rivera. "The winter break can either be a time of regression or an opportunity for focused improvement. We've structured our camp to ensure players return to their regular schedules stronger and more confident in their abilities."

The academy operates from the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club in Spring, TX, utilizing multiple courts for its various programs. The facility provides an ideal training environment with professional-grade courts and amenities that support comprehensive player development.

Rivera Tennis Academy serves the Spring, Texas community with tennis instruction for all ages and skill levels. Under the direction of Alfredo Rivera, a former ATP tour player and Chilean Davis Cup team member, the academy emphasizes technical excellence, strategic understanding, and athletic development. The academy maintains partnerships with equipment manufacturers and provides additional services including racquet stringing and equipment consultation.
