"As winter approaches, we see increased interest in traditional Swiss dining experiences from both local residents and international visitors," said Beni Kqira, General Manager of Zum Königstuhl. "Our Fondue Stube offers the authentic atmosphere and quality that guests expect when experiencing this iconic Swiss tradition in the heart of Zurich."

The restaurant emphasizes sustainability in its food preparation, working with regional suppliers to source fresh ingredients for both its lunch and evening menus.

The venue's event hosting capabilities have also been highlighted for the winter season, with the guild hall and Carolistube providing atmospheric settings for corporate gatherings and private celebrations. These historic spaces combine original architectural elements with modern amenities, creating venues suitable for both formal banquets and intimate gatherings.

"The integration of our bar and restaurant services allows guests to experience the full range of Swiss hospitality in one location," added Kqira. "Whether joining us for fondue with friends, hosting a corporate event, or enjoying cocktails in our lounge, we maintain the same commitment to quality and authentic Swiss hospitality."
