Sanford, FL - Caitlin Rain, best selling Amazon author, has announced the release of her second book in the Toxic Romance Series. This new installment is called Toxic Wealth and continues the story of love and obsession.

The book, Toxic Wealth continued from the story of Toxic Love with the sexy red-headed heroine Courtney. It follows her expanding story of starting to date Michael Atwood, a big time billionaire movie star. Courtney works for the Real News Company in San Francisco, California. She was asked by her boss Richard to interview Mr. Atwood along with her co-worker Bryan. However, Bryan is not in the least interested in the story and left Courtney with all the work to do.

The book later revealed that Bryan is in love with Courtney, although she only saw him as a friend. As Courtney and Michael?s relationship began, Bryan became furious. Bryan?s anger made him want to ensure that Courtney falls in love with him instead of Michael. The book delved into the raw emotions that develop with the obsessed Bryan.

Caitlin Rain remarked, ?Readers will love this second installment in the Toxic billionaire romance series. They?ll get to experience more of the characters, especially Bryan, who always wanted to be with Courtney. This suspenseful book in the series will keep readers at the edge of their seats.?

The book has started to gain some attention on Amazon. Some readers have expressed satisfaction with the development of the story in this second book of the billionaire romance series.

One reviewer, Mary, who gave the book five stars concluded, ?Caitlin, as always your characters are developing into what makes an interesting story. I'm ready for the next one in the series.?

Another five star reviewer Philicia said they would recommend the book to other romance story readers, She stated, ?It is full of love and twist. It also has one character that is very obsessed with someone. I would recommend.?

The writer, Caitlin Rain, has been creating and sharing fiction books since her freshman year in college. Rain has been able to travel the world and has seen different scenic locations. These experiences have allowed her to showcase stories with depth and an expanse of scenery.

Eager fans can receive this second book, Toxic Wealth, in the billionaire romance series on Amazon with a price of just $0.99. Those registered with Kindle Unlimited can access the book free of charge.
