

Milestone Church in McKinney to Host Annual ?Prepare? Event Featuring Three Days of Prayer, Fasting, and Worship to Begin 2026

December 23, 2025

McKinney, Texas - December 23, 2025 -
Milestone Church will hold its annual Prepare event from January 5?7, 2026, inviting individuals and families in McKinney to take part in three focused days of prayer, fasting, and worship. The event, which is streamed from the Keller campus and experienced in-person at Milestone McKinney, is a defining moment each year when the entire church body sets aside time at the start of January to seek God?s direction for the year ahead.

Prepare will feature powerful messages from nationally recognized guest speakers, including Tom Mullins, the founder of Christ Fellowship Church and Place of Hope; Jabin Chavez, the lead pastor of City Light Church and a respected voice in church leadership; and Dr. Dharius Daniels, a pastor and author known for his work helping individuals walk in their purpose. These speakers will guide attendees through an evening worship experience that centers on faith, vision, and spiritual growth.

Each night of Prepare will include pre-service prayer from 6:00 PM to 6:45 PM, followed by the main service from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM. The McKinney campus, located at 601 S. Graves Street, will serve as a local gathering place for live worship, prayer, and streaming of the main message from the Keller campus. Online access is also available, with all sessions livestreamed through Milestone Live, Facebook, and YouTube, making it easy for remote attendees to participate from anywhere.

In addition to the evening gatherings, Milestone Church offers ten-minute online noon prayer sessions each day of Prepare. These midday touchpoints are designed to help participants stay spiritually focused throughout the fast. A daily devotional will also be emailed each morning, offering scripture and reflections that align with the theme of the event. Prayer Guides will be available at the McKinney campus to help individuals pray with purpose during Prepare and in the months that follow.

Participation is free, and no registration is required. All are welcome to attend, whether new to Milestone Church or already part of the McKinney community. The church-wide fast officially begins on January 5 and ends after the final service on January 7. Attendees are encouraged to fast in a way that is meaningful and sustainable for them personally?whether that includes food, media, or other distractions?while focusing on spiritual renewal.

The McKinney campus plays an important role in expanding access to the Prepare experience for residents in Collin County and surrounding areas. While the main message will be streamed from Keller, the McKinney campus will offer live worship and in-person prayer opportunities each evening, giving attendees a meaningful local setting to encounter God and connect with others in their church family.

Prepare continues to grow each year, with thousands of participants across Milestone?s Keller, Haslet, Argyle, and McKinney campuses, as well as a large online audience. The event reflects Milestone?s belief that starting the year in prayer and fasting can bring clarity, direction, and peace. For many, it has become a time of spiritual alignment that influences major life decisions, renews personal vision, and strengthens relationships within the church community.

Milestone volunteers and staff in McKinney will be available throughout the event to assist guests and provide support. Children?s ministry will be available during nightly services so that families with young children can fully participate in the main worship experience.

As Milestone Church looks toward all that 2026 may hold, Prepare remains a foundational event to begin the year with intention. Through three days of unified prayer, worship, and fasting, the McKinney campus joins the broader church family in seeking God first and trusting Him for what?s to come.
