Buy Tical Expands Premium Cannabis Storage Solutions and Method Man Baseball Caps Collection

May 04, 2026

STATEN ISLAND, NY - May 04, 2026 -
Buy Tical, the premium lifestyle brand co-founded by hip-hop icon Method Man, today announced the expansion of its cannabis storage and apparel collections to meet growing consumer demand for authentic hip-hop merchandise and secure storage solutions.

The company has enhanced its product offerings to include limited-edition Method Man baseball caps alongside its signature cannabis storage systems, responding to increased interest from collectors and cannabis consumers seeking quality lifestyle products. The expansion reflects broader trends in urban streetwear and the evolving cannabis accessories market.

"The intersection of hip-hop culture and cannabis lifestyle has created a unique market opportunity that we're positioned to serve," said Joshua "Raz" Rassin, TICAL co-founder and COO. "Our customers aren't just buying products; they're investing in authentic pieces that represent a cultural movement. From our storage solutions to our apparel, everything we create reflects the values of quality, security, and style."

The company's signature weed lockbox offerings feature dual-protection security systems with both key and combination locks, airtight seals for freshness preservation, and wooden humidor designs that maintain optimal humidity levels. Each unit includes custom glass jars, elastic straps for oils, and dedicated organization systems. The boxes are constructed from high-quality wood and glass materials, avoiding the static and chemical concerns associated with plastic containers, while UV-resistant materials protect contents from harmful light exposure.

The limited-edition apparel line, including the sought-after baseball caps, represents a collaboration between street fashion and cannabis culture. Each piece in the collection is produced in limited quantities, adding exclusivity to the brand's offerings. The caps feature distinctive designs that have resonated with collectors and fashion enthusiasts alike.

"TICAL stands for Taking Into Consideration All Lives, and that philosophy drives everything we create," noted Rassin. "Whether someone is looking for a secure storage solution or wants to represent the culture through our apparel, we're providing products that meet real needs while maintaining the highest standards of quality and authenticity."

The expansion comes as the cannabis accessories market continues to evolve, with consumers increasingly prioritizing both security and aesthetics in their storage solutions. Industry observers note that brands bridging the gap between functional cannabis accessories and lifestyle products are finding particular success among consumers who view their purchases as both practical investments and cultural statements.

Buy Tical's product line extends beyond storage and headwear to include t-shirts, hoodies, sunglasses, and various accessories, all produced in limited quantities to maintain exclusivity. The brand maintains its commitment to premium materials and craftsmanship across all product categories.

Buy Tical operates as a premium lifestyle brand offering exclusive merchandise through its online platform. The company specializes in limited-production items that blend hip-hop culture with contemporary cannabis lifestyle, serving customers who value authenticity, quality, and cultural significance in their purchases.
