Azalea Hospitality Announces Complete Masters Tickets and VIP Services for 2026 Tournament

January 14, 2026

AUGUSTA, GA - January 14, 2026 -
Azalea Hospitality today announced its comprehensive ticketing and hospitality services for the 2026 Masters Tournament, scheduled for April 6-12 at Augusta National Golf Club in Augusta, Georgia. The company has expanded its offerings to include enhanced VIP packages, valet parking services, and transportation options for golf enthusiasts planning to attend one of professional golf's most prestigious championships.

The 2026 tournament marks another year of Azalea Hospitality providing specialized services for Masters attendees, with the company now offering an expanded range of options, including ticket-only purchases, VIP hospitality packages, and comprehensive packages that incorporate housing accommodations. The company has also introduced dedicated valet parking services available for all tournament days, including practice rounds, which can be purchased independently of tournament tickets.

"We recognize that attending the Masters represents a bucket-list experience for many golf fans, and our goal is to remove the complexity from planning and logistics," said Josh B, a representative from Azalea

Hospitality. "From securing masters tickets to arranging transportation and accommodations, we handle every detail so attendees can focus on enjoying this exceptional sporting event."

Transportation remains a critical consideration for tournament attendees, given Augusta National's strict policies and limited parking availability. The company's shuttle service operates throughout each tournament day, providing reliable transportation to and from the course. The valet parking service offers a premium option for those preferring to drive, with designated parking areas and professional attendants managing vehicle logistics.

Azalea Hospitality has established itself as more than just a ticket provider, housing what the company describes as an unofficial Masters museum featuring a tournament badge from the inaugural 1934 Masters, signed by all competing golfers from that historic event. This commitment to golf history reflects the company's deep connection to the traditions and heritage of the tournament.

The official lottery for masters tickets 2026 concluded in late July 2025, with winners notified via email after the June 1-20 application window. For those who were not selected in the lottery, Azalea Hospitality serves as an accredited secondary market provider, offering legitimate access to tournament badges for all competition days, practice rounds, and the traditional Par 3 Contest held on April 8.

The 2026 Masters Tournament will feature practice rounds on April 6 and 7, followed by the Par 3 Contest on April 8, with competitive rounds running from April 9 through 12. Attendees should note that Augusta National maintains strict policies regarding electronic devices, with phones prohibited on course grounds at all times, though cameras are permitted during practice rounds only.

Beyond the Masters Tournament, Azalea Hospitality provides ticketing and hospitality services for other major golf championships, including the PGA Championship, The Open Championship, and The Ryder Cup. The company operates independently and maintains no official sponsorship, affiliation, or partnership with The Masters Golf Tournament, Augusta National Golf Club, or Augusta National, Inc.
