

RestoPros of the Sandhills Expands Restoration Services Across Sandhills Region

January 29, 2026

FAYETTEVILLE, NC - January 29, 2026 -

RestoPros of the Sandhills, a professional restoration service provider based in Fayetteville, North Carolina, announces the expansion of its comprehensive restoration services throughout the greater Sandhills region. The expansion enhances the company's ability to provide rapid emergency response for water damage restoration, fire and smoke damage, mold remediation, and storm damage across more than 40 communities.

The expanded service coverage represents a strategic initiative to meet growing demand for professional restoration services in North Carolina's Sandhills region. With 30 years of combined industry experience, the company maintains 24/7 emergency response capabilities to assist both residential and commercial clients facing property damage crises.

"Our expansion across the Sandhills region reflects our commitment to being there when our neighbors need us most," said Brett Jordan, spokesperson for RestoPros of the Sandhills. "Property damage emergencies don't follow a schedule, and our enhanced regional presence ensures we can respond quickly to minimize damage and begin the restoration process immediately, whether it's a burst pipe in Southern Pines or storm damage in Laurinburg."

The company's water damage restoration services address emergencies ranging from pipe bursts to flooding, following a comprehensive process that includes initial assessment, water extraction, structural drying, cleaning, and complete restoration. As an Institute of Inspection Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) certified provider, the company adheres to industry-leading standards in all restoration procedures.

Beyond water damage, the expanded services encompass fire and smoke damage restoration, where trained technicians handle everything from initial damage assessment to complete property restoration. The company's mold remediation services identify contamination sources, contain affected areas, and restore properties to safe, pre-damage conditions. Storm damage response includes emergency board-up services, debris removal, and comprehensive property restoration following severe weather events.

"Every restoration project presents unique challenges, and our expanded regional presence allows us to bring specialized expertise and equipment directly to affected communities," added Jordan. "We understand the stress property damage creates, and our goal is to make the restoration process as smooth as possible while working directly with insurance providers to streamline claims."

The service expansion now encompasses Aberdeen, Angier, Apex, Benson, Broadway, Bunnlevel, Cameron, Carthage, Clinton, Coats, Dunn, Eastover, Erwin, Fayetteville, Fuquay-Varina, Godwin, Hamlet, Holly Springs, Hope Mills, Laurinburg, Lillington, Linden, Lumberton, Maxton, Parkton, Pembroke, Pinehurst, Pittsboro, Raeford, Red Springs, Robbins, Rockingham, Sanford, Selma, Siler City, Smithfield, Southern Pines, Spring Lake, St. Pauls, Stedman, Vass, Wade, and Whispering Pines.

RestoPros of the Sandhills maintains memberships with the Better Business Bureau and the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, demonstrating its commitment to quality service and community engagement. The company provides free inspections and detailed quotes for all restoration services, ensuring property owners understand the scope and cost of necessary repairs before work begins.

As a fully insured restoration provider, the company combines technical expertise with responsive customer service to help property owners navigate the challenges of damage restoration. The expansion strengthens the company's position as a leading restoration service provider in the Sandhills region, offering comprehensive solutions for property damage emergencies.
