

Crack'd Kitchen Announces Burlington, MA Location Opening March 2026

January 29, 2026

January 29, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Crack'd Kitchen, the culinary-driven gourmet eatery known for its breakfast sandwiches and creative menu offerings, announces the opening of a new location in Burlington, Massachusetts, scheduled for March 2026. The expansion brings the brand's signature egg sandwiches, mac bowls, and coffee offerings to Burlington residents and workers seeking quality breakfast and lunch options.

The Burlington expansion reflects growing demand for restaurants that bridge the gap between quick-service establishments and full-service dining. Crack'd Kitchen occupies this space by offering gourmet ingredients and culinary creativity in a fast-casual format. Menu items range from basic egg sandwiches to varied price points for specialty bowls and plates, providing accessible options for different budgets and appetites.

The new Burlington location will feature the full Crack'd Kitchen menu, including popular items such as The Basic egg sandwich with cage-free eggs and cheddar on brioche, and the Live Free Or Die sandwich featuring country bacon and house-made CKC ketchup. The restaurant specializes in both breakfast and lunch in Burlington, MA, offering everything from hearty egg sandwiches and bowls to sandwiches, tenders, and creative mac bowls throughout the day.

The menu at Crack'd Kitchen extends beyond traditional breakfast fare to include diverse lunch offerings such as sandwiches and tenders, greens and grains bowls, and snack options. The restaurant also features an extensive beverage program with espresso drinks, iced coffee varieties, smoothies, milkshakes, and specialty drinks, including energizers, iced teas, and lemonades. Kid meals ensure family-friendly dining options as well.

The new location will serve both dine-in and takeout customers, catering to the diverse needs of Burlington's community. With many menu items featuring cage-free eggs and fresh ingredients, the restaurant appeals to health-conscious diners while still offering indulgent options like mac bowls and milkshakes.

"Burlington represents an ideal market for our concept, with its mix of residential neighborhoods and business districts creating strong demand for quality breakfast and lunch in Burlington, Massachusetts options," said Co-Founder Danny Azzarello. "Our menu combines comfort food favorites with culinary innovation, providing something for everyone, whether they're grabbing a quick coffee and egg sandwich before work or enjoying a leisurely lunch with colleagues."

Crack'd Kitchen & Coffee has built its reputation on reimagining classic breakfast and lunch dishes with contemporary culinary techniques and high-quality ingredients. The brand's social media presence showcases new menu items and seasonal offerings, maintaining engagement with customers between visits. The Burlington location will continue this tradition of menu innovation while maintaining the core offerings that have made the concept successful.

The March opening in MA positions the restaurant to serve Burlington's breakfast and lunch needs as winter transitions to spring, traditionally a time when dining traffic increases. The location will offer the same allergy guides and dietary information available at other Crack'd Kitchen locations, ensuring transparency for customers with specific dietary requirements or preferences.
