Magic Memories Spotlights Director Iyisha Weaver's Expertise in Early Childhood Education

January 26, 2026

PLYMOUTH MEETING, PA - January 26, 2026 -

Magic Memories features Iyisha Weaver, director at its Plymouth Meeting location, whose background in early childhood education guides the center's daily operations and program delivery. Weaver brings over six years of experience in the field, including work as an early education specialist in family homeless shelter systems, along with a bachelor's degree in child and family development and a master's degree in education. Her professional background informs leadership decisions related to curriculum alignment, classroom structure, and educator support within the center.

Weaver joined the organization in January 2022 and oversees a team that provides care for children from six weeks to 12 years old. The center offers programs tailored to various developmental stages, including infant and toddler classrooms, preschool and pre-kindergarten groups, Pre-K Counts, before- and after-school care, and summer camp. Small-group instruction addresses individual needs, strengths, and interests, while outdoor playgrounds equipped with climbers and slides support motor skills and physical activity. Educators follow structured schedules that balance learning, play, and rest, supporting consistent daily routines for children across age groups.

The facility maintains a warm, home-like environment that fosters trusting relationships between staff, children, and families. Teachers nurture children with personal attention, and daily communication keeps parents informed about their child's progress. This approach aligns with the center's emphasis on safety, security, and developmental growth. Ongoing communication practices are designed to build transparency and reinforce collaboration between families and educators throughout the year.

As a provider of preschool and child care in Plymouth Meeting, PA, the center operates weekdays from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Its location near major highways and local businesses supports accessibility for families in the area. The setting allows the center to serve a diverse community of working families with varying schedules and childcare needs.

The center's commitment to quality earned recognition through the 2025 Main Line Parent's LOVE Award for Excellence in Early Childhood Education, reflecting parent satisfaction with the supportive staff and preparation for future schooling. The recognition highlights community acknowledgment of consistent educational practices and family engagement.

Iyisha Weaver, Director at Magic Memories Plymouth Meeting, stated, "My background in diverse educational settings informs our focus on creating inclusive spaces where children receive individualized support for their growth." She emphasized the importance of understanding each child?s experiences and adapting classroom environments accordingly.

Assistant Director Wakila Richardson, who has been with the organization since 2021 and is pursuing an associate's degree, contributes to program consistency across age groups.

Wakila Richardson, Assistant Director at Magic Memories Plymouth Meeting, added, "The team works together to observe and support each child's development, helping them build confidence through structured activities." She noted that collaboration among educators supports continuity and shared understanding of developmental goals.

These efforts support cognitive, social, and physical milestones in a nurturing setting. The center prioritizes transparent partnerships with families, ensuring consistent communication and involvement. Family engagement is viewed as an essential component of early learning experiences and child development.

Magic Memories operates centers across Pennsylvania, each designed to deliver comprehensive early learning experiences. The organization employs qualified professionals who exceed state standards to facilitate child-centered care. Professional development and training support consistent practices across all locations.

Magic Memories is a Pennsylvania-based provider of early education programs serving infants through school-age children. The entity emphasizes developmental growth through nurturing environments and structured activities, partnering with families to support children's progress.
