

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction Expands Comprehensive Siding Services Across Southwest Missouri

March 05, 2026

PURDY, MO - March 05, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction LLC, a family-owned contractor serving Southwest Missouri, has expanded its comprehensive exterior home services to address increasing demand for professional siding, roofing, and gutter solutions throughout the region. The expansion strengthens the company's presence in Springfield, Aurora, Republic, Monett, Purdy, and surrounding communities.

The expansion comes as homeowners across Southwest Missouri face mounting challenges from severe weather patterns and aging home infrastructure. The company's enhanced service offerings combine traditional craftsmanship with modern installation techniques, providing property owners with a single, trusted source for critical home protection services.

Like Father Like Son Roofing Siding services now encompass complete exterior renovation capabilities, including vinyl siding installation, fiber cement siding options, storm damage restoration, and custom weatherproofing solutions. The company's siding installations provide enhanced energy efficiency, improved weather protection, and reduced long-term maintenance costs for property owners throughout the service area.

"Southwest Missouri homeowners deserve reliable contractors who understand the unique weather challenges our region faces," said Eric, owner of Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction. "Our expanded services allow us to provide comprehensive exterior solutions that protect homes while enhancing their value and curb appeal. We're committed to maintaining the personalized service that sets local, family-owned businesses apart."

The expansion reflects growing regional demand for professional contractors capable of handling multiple exterior home services. Property owners increasingly seek single-source providers who can coordinate roofing, siding, and gutter projects efficiently while maintaining consistent quality standards across all services.

The company also offers complete Like Father Like Son Roofing Gutter Services, ensuring proper water drainage systems that protect foundations and prevent costly water damage. These services complement the company's established roofing installation, repair, and spray foam insulation offerings, creating a comprehensive approach to home exterior protection.

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction maintains an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau, demonstrating a consistent commitment to quality workmanship and customer satisfaction. The company provides free, no-obligation inspections to help property owners understand their options and make informed decisions about necessary repairs or improvements.

As a licensed and insured contractor, the company ensures all work meets or exceeds regional building codes and industry standards. The comprehensive insurance coverage protects both the company's workers and clients' properties throughout every project phase.

Like Father Like Son Roofing and Construction LLC operates as a family-owned business dedicated to serving Southwest Missouri communities with professional exterior home services. The company specializes in roofing installation and repair, siding services, gutter installation and maintenance, and spray foam insulation. With 24/7 emergency service availability and a commitment to transparent, upfront pricing, the company has established itself as a trusted resource for homeowners throughout the region. The business maintains proper licensing and insurance coverage while adhering to all regional building codes and industry best practices.
