

Nelson Exteriors Receives James Hardie President's Club Award for 2025

March 13, 2026

March 13, 2026 -
Nelson Exteriors, a leading exterior renovation contractor serving the North Atlanta Metro area, has been named a recipient of the prestigious James Hardie 2025 President's Club Award. The recognition honors contractors who have demonstrated exceptional sales volume, growth, and outstanding service excellence in partnership with James Hardie, the nation's leading manufacturer of fiber cement siding products.

The President's Club Award represents elite recognition within the James Hardie contractor network, with a limited number of recipients selected annually based on stringent performance criteria. The award acknowledges contractors who maintain consistent quality standards, deliver superior customer service, demonstrate installation excellence, and sustain long-term partnerships with James Hardie. Nelson Exteriors earned this distinction through its commitment to craftsmanship and adherence to the highest industry standards as a James Hardie Elite Preferred Contractor.

As a family-owned exterior contractor established in 1977, Nelson Exteriors has built a reputation for excellence across the North Atlanta Metro region. The company specializes in comprehensive exterior renovation services, including siding replacement, deck construction, window installation, roofing, and painting. Their certification as a James Hardie Elite Preferred Contractor places them among an exclusive group of installers who have completed advanced training and consistently meet James Hardie's exacting installation standards.

"Receiving the James Hardie President's Club Award validates our team's dedication to quality craftsmanship and customer satisfaction," said Scott Nelson, owner of Nelson Exteriors. "This recognition reflects our commitment to maintaining the highest installation standards and delivering exceptional results for every homeowner we serve. Our partnership with James Hardie enables us to provide superior fiber cement siding solutions that enhance both the beauty and value of homes throughout the North Atlanta area."

The significance of this award extends beyond individual recognition, highlighting the importance of professional installation in maximizing the performance and longevity of exterior building products. Homeowners who work with President's Club Award recipients benefit from the expertise of contractors who have proven their ability to deliver consistent, high-quality results while maintaining strong manufacturer partnerships. This level of excellence ensures that siding installations meet warranty requirements and perform optimally for decades.

Nelson Exteriors continues to expand its capabilities and maintain its position as a leader in exterior renovation services. The company's achievement of the President's Club Award reinforces its standing as a trusted partner for homeowners seeking professional exterior improvements. As the company moves forward, it remains committed to upholding the standards that earned this prestigious recognition while exploring new ways to serve the North Atlanta community.
