DENVER - The developers of the #1 best-selling iFart® app (jumping to the top of the charts for three weeks in December 2008 on iTunes) have released a free version of their popular app for the Android platform.

?Since its explosive release in 2008, iFart® has been used by millions of people. In fact, iFart scientists have calculated that over a billion virtual farts have been served via the app with no discernible impact on global warming,? says Joel Comm, New York Times Best-Selling author and creator of the infamous novelty app.

iFart® once named an Apple All Time Top 20 Paid App continues to be mentioned in dozens of publications and media sources from around the globe. It is currently the most popular flatulence application in iTunes, has achieved pop culture status and even has its own Wikipedia page.

Arguably the funniest, most infamous and copycatted app in history, Android users can now download the Original and Most Popular Fart Sound App ever.

Completely free and fully-featured, iFart® for Android is a truly a blast. With over thirty fart sounds at a user?s

disposal, as well as signature features such as Sneak Attack, Security Fart and Record-A-Fart it?s fun for all ages.

For those who want more stink and laughs, the Fart Store contains a number of themed Fart Packs available for instant purchase. Themes include the Movie Pack (Harry Pooter, BraveFart and more), the Bands Pack (Van InHalen, Poo Fighters and more), the Fart Wars Pack (Darth Vapor, The Kessel Runs, Storm Pooper and more), there are currently six fart packs containing 10 sounds each.

Download iFart® right now for free on Google Play at: <http://ifartmobile.com/android/>.
