Rivera Tennis Academy Announces Spring Tennis Camp Sessions for Junior and Adult Players

March 12, 2026

Spring, Texas - March 12, 2026 -
Rivera Tennis Academy has announced registration is now open for its comprehensive spring tennis camp programs, offering specialized training sessions for junior and adult players of all skill levels from March 9-13 and March 16-20, 2025.

The Spring Tennis Camp in Spring, TX, features separate programs tailored to different age groups and abilities, with junior sessions running from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM and adult sessions from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM. The academy has structured the camps to provide age-appropriate instruction while maintaining high-energy engagement for all participants.

"Our spring camps represent the perfect opportunity for players to accelerate their development during the school break season," said Alfredo Rivera, Academy Director and former ATP and Davis Cup player. "We've designed each program to balance technical instruction with competitive play, ensuring participants not only improve their skills but also develop a deeper appreciation for the sport."

The Junior Spring Camp accommodates players from ages 5 through teens, with participants grouped according to ball color progression standards. Red Ball instruction serves ages 5-8, Orange and Green Ball training targets ages 9-12, and Yellow Ball sessions focus on teenage players. Each group receives coaching tailored to their developmental stage, emphasizing proper technique, footwork, and game strategy.

Adult players can choose from three distinct skill levels in the Adult Spring Camp program. Beginner sessions introduce newcomers to tennis fundamentals, intermediate classes serve players rated 3.0-3.5, and advanced sessions challenge players rated 4.0 and above with high-performance training methods.

Rivera Tennis Academy in Spring, TX, operates from the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club facility, providing participants with access to quality courts and training equipment. The academy maintains its reputation for excellence through its comprehensive approach to tennis instruction, which includes technical development, physical conditioning, and mental game coaching.

Registration fees for the junior camps are set at $120 per week for the 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM sessions and $150 for the extended 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM option. Drop-in rates of $45 per day are available for those unable to commit to the full week. Adult camp registration is $120 per week for the two-hour morning sessions.

"The structured environment of our camps allows players to make significant progress in a short timeframe," added Rivera. "Whether someone is picking up a racquet for the first time or preparing for competitive tournaments, our coaching staff adapts to meet each player's individual goals."

Parents and players interested in the upcoming camps are encouraged to Register for the Tennis Camp early, as spaces fill quickly for both session weeks. The academy's proven track record of developing players across all age groups has established it as a premier tennis training destination in the Spring area.

Rivera Tennis Academy offers year-round tennis instruction including junior, adult, private, elite, and homeschool programs. Under the direction of Alfredo Rivera, the academy has earned recognition for its professional coaching staff, comprehensive training methodology, and commitment to developing players at every level of the game.
