

Mount Rushmore Tours Highlights Peak Season Opportunities for Visitors to Experience South Dakota's Historic Landmarks

April 06, 2026

RAPID CITY, SD - April 06, 2026 -
Mount Rushmore Tours, a leading bus tour operator serving the Black Hills region for over 51 years, announces enhanced tour availability during the peak summer season to accommodate increased visitor interest in experiencing Mount Rushmore National Memorial and surrounding historic sites.

The Rapid City-based tour company has expanded its daily tour schedule to meet growing demand from families, groups, and international visitors seeking guided experiences of America's most iconic presidential monument. The company's comprehensive tour offerings include Mount Rushmore day trips, Black Hills sightseeing excursions, historical tours of Rapid City, and customized group adventures throughout the region.

Supported by Mount Rushmore Tours, visitors can explore beyond the memorial itself to discover attractions including the Lakota, Nakota and Dakota Heritage Village, the Lincoln Borglund Visitor Center, and the Avenue of Flags. The company's tours also incorporate stops at the Iron Mountain Road scenic drive and other Black Hills landmarks that showcase the region's natural beauty and cultural significance.

"With the Mount Rushmore Evening Lighting Ceremony running through September 30th and optimal weather conditions throughout the summer months, visitors have exceptional opportunities to experience the memorial and surrounding attractions," said Clint Jones, Operations Director at Mount Rushmore Tours. "Our experienced guides provide historical context and local insights that transform a simple visit into an educational journey through American history and Native American heritage."

The tour operator offers multiple service options to accommodate different group sizes and interests. These include traditional bus tours with expert commentary, private charters for corporate events and family reunions, Fort Hays experiences that explore the area's frontier history, and specialized educational programs for school groups. Proudly serving Mount Rushmore bus tours, the company maintains a fleet of comfortable, modern vehicles equipped to handle the region's mountainous terrain while providing panoramic views of the landscape.

"Our goal is to make these national treasures accessible to all visitors while sharing the stories that make this region so significant to American history," added Jones. "From the artistry and engineering marvel of Mount Rushmore itself to the sacred lands of the Lakota people, every tour provides multiple perspectives on this remarkable landscape."

The company's tours operate seven days a week from 7:00 am to 6:00 pm, with multiple departure times to accommodate various schedules. Advanced reservations are recommended during peak season months when visitor numbers typically reach their highest levels.

Mount Rushmore Tours has established itself as one of the region's most experienced tour operators, maintaining partnerships with travel agencies and platforms while offering direct booking options with best price guarantees. Trusted community bus tours in Rapid City continue to serve as an essential resource for visitors seeking comprehensive experiences of the Mount Rushmore area. The company's long-standing presence in the community has enabled it to develop relationships with local attractions and businesses, enhancing the overall visitor experience through exclusive access and insider knowledge of the region's hidden gems.
