

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite Enhances Google Business Profile for Downtown Jacksonville Office

March 12, 2026

JACKSONVILLE, FL - March 12, 2026 -

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite has enhanced its Google Business Profile for its downtown Jacksonville office to provide comprehensive information about the firm's family law services to residents throughout the urban core. The updated profile now features detailed practice area descriptions, office information, and guidance for individuals seeking assistance with divorce, child custody, and related family law matters.

The Jacksonville Downtown family law office serves as a central resource for individuals navigating complex family legal issues in Northeast Florida's largest metropolitan area. The enhanced profile includes expanded descriptions of the firm's services, including divorce proceedings, child custody arrangements, alimony negotiations, and adoption processes. The firm has also updated its profile to include information about specialized services such as collaborative divorce, military divorce considerations, and LGBTQ+ family matters.

"Maintaining accurate and accessible online information is essential for helping families find the legal support they need during challenging times," said Jay Henderlite, managing partner at Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite. "Our enhanced Google Business Profile ensures that individuals searching for family law assistance in downtown Jacksonville can quickly understand our services and expertise before making initial contact."

The firm's downtown location serves residents throughout Jacksonville's urban core and surrounding communities, providing convenient access to board-certified family law expertise. As the only firm in Northeast Florida with three Board Certified Marital & Family Law Experts serving as managing partners, Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite brings specialized knowledge to cases involving property division, parenting plans, and support modifications.

The enhanced profile also directs visitors to the Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite media center, which offers additional resources, including informational articles about Florida family law, updates on legislative changes affecting divorce and custody matters, and guidance on preparing for legal consultations. These resources complement the firm's commitment to client education and transparency in legal proceedings.

The firm operates multiple offices across Northeast Florida, with each location maintaining its own Google Business Profile to serve specific communities. The downtown Jacksonville office enhancement reflects the firm's broader initiative to ensure that accurate legal information remains readily available to individuals searching for family law assistance online.

Beyond traditional family law services, the firm also provides criminal defense representation in domestic violence cases and related matters that often intersect with family law proceedings. This comprehensive approach allows the firm to address the full spectrum of legal challenges that families may face during periods of transition.

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite specializes in all aspects of family law, including adoption, alimony, child custody and support, collaborative divorce, mediation services, paternity matters, and prenuptial agreements. The firm also handles complex cases involving assisted reproductive technology law, relative caregiver actions, and modifications to existing court orders. With decades of combined experience, the firm's attorneys provide strategic counsel tailored to each client's unique circumstances and goals.
