

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite Expands Online Media Center for Family Law Resources

March 18, 2026

JACKSONVILLE, FL - March 18, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite, a Jacksonville-based family and criminal law firm, has expanded its online media center to serve as a comprehensive resource hub for families navigating legal matters throughout Northeast Florida. The platform provides access to firm announcements, educational content, and developing informational resources related to divorce, custody, parenting plans, and other family law issues.

The firm media center represents a strategic initiative to improve public access to reliable legal information while maintaining transparency about firm developments and community involvement. The platform organizes content in an accessible format, allowing individuals to stay informed about legal topics that may affect their families while following updates from the firm's three Board-Certified Marital & Family Law experts.

"Creating a centralized resource where families can access trustworthy information about family law matters reflects our commitment to serving the Northeast Florida community beyond the courtroom," said Jay Henderlite, Partner at Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite. "The media center allows us to share our expertise in a format that helps people understand their options and make informed decisions during challenging times."

The media center features several content categories designed to address different informational needs. Firm announcements keep the public informed about service expansions, new legal developments, and office updates. Educational resources cover topics ranging from understanding Florida's divorce procedures to navigating child custody arrangements. The platform also hosts community-facing information that addresses seasonal legal concerns and regulatory changes affecting families in the region.

As the only firm in Northeast Florida with three Board-Certified Marital & Family Law experts serving as managing partners, Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite brings substantial expertise to the content published through the media center. The firm handles complex cases involving adoption, alimony, child custody and support, collaborative divorce, military divorce, prenuptial agreements, and LGBTQ+ family matters.

The development of the media center aligns with broader trends in legal services toward increased transparency and public education. By maintaining a consistent publishing schedule and organizing content systematically, the firm aims to build a growing repository of resources that families can reference throughout their legal journeys.

"We recognize that legal information can be overwhelming and often difficult to find when families need it most," added Henderlite. "Our media center serves as a steady, reliable source where people can find answers to common questions and stay updated on legal matters affecting families in Jacksonville and surrounding areas."

The firm plans to continue expanding the media center's content offerings over time, with future additions focusing on emerging family law topics and responding to community needs. While not every practice area currently has comprehensive coverage within the platform, the firm is systematically developing resources to address the full spectrum of family law matters.

Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite specializes in family and criminal law, offering services including divorce, child custody, adoption, domestic violence defense, and criminal defense throughout Northeast Florida. The firm maintains offices in Jacksonville and has recently expanded services to Fernandina Beach.
