"The flooring industry has evolved significantly with new materials and installation techniques that offer superior durability and aesthetic appeal," said Oliver Andrews, Director at OA Design Marketing Ltd. "Our Mortimer location combines traditional craftsmanship with modern flooring solutions to meet the varied needs of property owners across Berkshire. We guide clients through every aspect of their flooring project, from initial material selection to final installation."

The Mortimer facility specializes in both residential and commercial flooring projects, with dedicated teams trained in specific installation requirements for each sector. Commercial offerings include heavy-duty vinyl flooring, safety flooring systems, and commercial-grade LVT installations engineered to withstand intensive foot traffic.

Beyond standard installations, the company provides comprehensive flooring maintenance and repair services. These include floor restoration and renovation, professional floor sanding, carpet whipping and binding, and sheet vinyl flooring installations. The service portfolio addresses the complete lifecycle of flooring systems, from initial installation through ongoing maintenance and eventual replacement.

The facility maintains partnerships with leading flooring manufacturers, ensuring access to quality materials that meet diverse budget requirements and design preferences. Installation teams undergo regular training to stay current with industry standards and installation methodologies, particularly for newer products like LVT and LVP that require specialized techniques.
