April 29, 2026

BERKSHIRE, UK - April 29, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

OA Design Marketing Ltd announces its comprehensive range of flooring services available to homeowners and businesses throughout Berkshire, with particular focus on meeting the growing demand for quality flooring installations in Eton Wick and surrounding areas.

The company, operating as Edge To Edge Home (Flooring Berkshire) - Flooring Eton Wick, provides extensive flooring solutions ranging from traditional hardwood installations to modern luxury vinyl tile options. As property renovations continue to surge across Berkshire, the company has positioned itself to address diverse flooring needs for both residential and commercial clients.

"We're seeing unprecedented interest in flooring upgrades as property owners recognize the impact that quality flooring has on both property value and daily comfort," said Oliver Andrews, Director at OA Design Marketing Ltd. "Our approach combines traditional craftsmanship with modern materials and installation techniques to deliver flooring solutions that balance durability, aesthetics, and practical maintenance requirements."

The company's service portfolio encompasses multiple flooring categories designed to meet varying client needs and budgets. For residential properties, offerings include premium wood flooring that enhances aesthetic appeal, cost-effective laminate solutions that provide durability with minimal maintenance, and luxury vinyl tile installations known for their versatility and resilience. Commercial clients benefit from specialized installations designed to withstand heavy foot traffic while maintaining professional appearance standards.

Beyond standard installation services, the company provides comprehensive flooring repair, restoration, and renovation services. These additional offerings address the full lifecycle of flooring investments, from initial installation through long-term maintenance and eventual replacement or upgrade needs.

The selection process forms a crucial component of the company's service approach. Clients receive guidance through material selection, style options, and installation methods, ensuring final results align with specific space requirements, usage patterns, aesthetic preferences, and budget constraints. This consultative approach helps property owners navigate the complex array of flooring options available in today's market.

Commercial properties present unique challenges that require specialized expertise. The company addresses these needs through commercial-grade wood flooring installations engineered for durability, laminate solutions that balance cost-effectiveness with professional appearance, and luxury vinyl tile options capable of maintaining their appearance despite continuous heavy use.

The company maintains partnerships with leading flooring manufacturers, ensuring access to quality materials and the latest innovations in flooring technology. This network of suppliers enables the company to offer comprehensive warranties and support for all installations.

OA Design Marketing Ltd continues to expand its service coverage throughout Berkshire, responding to increasing demand for professional flooring services. The company's commitment to combining practical knowledge with design expertise has established its reputation as a reliable flooring solutions provider in the region. Through its focused approach to quality installation and customer service, the company addresses the evolving flooring needs of Berkshire's residential and commercial property markets.
