

OA Design Marketing Ltd Expands Flooring Services Throughout Berkshire Including Swallowfield

May 14, 2026

BERKSHIRE, UK - May 14, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

OA Design Marketing Ltd, operating as Flooring Berkshire, has announced the expansion of its comprehensive flooring services across multiple locations in Berkshire, with enhanced service capabilities now available to residential and commercial clients in Swallowfield and surrounding areas.

The company has strengthened its presence in the region by offering an extensive range of flooring solutions including luxury vinyl tile, laminate, wood, and commercial-grade options. The expansion reflects growing demand for professional flooring services that combine quality materials with expert installation across both residential and commercial sectors.

Edge To Edge Home (Flooring Berkshire) - Flooring Swallowfield services now encompass complete flooring solutions from initial consultation through installation and ongoing maintenance. The company provides specialized expertise in luxury vinyl tile installations, wood flooring restoration, and commercial flooring projects designed to withstand heavy traffic while maintaining aesthetic appeal.

"Our expansion throughout Berkshire represents our commitment to making professional flooring services more accessible to property owners across the region," said Oliver Andrews, Director of Operations at OA Design Marketing Ltd. "We recognize that flooring is a significant investment for any property, and our goal is to provide comprehensive solutions that balance durability, visual appeal, and long-term value for both residential and commercial clients."

The company's service portfolio includes residential installations featuring luxury vinyl tile, laminate flooring, and traditional wood options, alongside commercial solutions encompassing safety flooring, commercial vinyl, and carpet installations. Each project receives customized attention, with specialists guiding clients through material selection, style options, and installation methods suited to specific property requirements.

Commercial clients benefit from flooring solutions engineered for durability and compliance with safety standards, while residential customers can choose from contemporary luxury vinyl tile designs, cost-effective laminate options, or premium wood flooring installations. The company also provides restoration services, floor sanding, and ongoing maintenance programs to protect flooring investments.

"The flooring industry continues to evolve with new materials and installation techniques, and we ensure our teams stay current with these developments," added Andrews. "Whether clients require vinyl flooring for high-moisture areas, luxury vinyl plank for residential spaces, or commercial-grade solutions for retail environments, we provide the expertise and materials to deliver lasting results."

Beyond installation services, the company offers flooring repair, improvements, and specialized services such as carpet whipping and binding. Their comprehensive approach includes sheet vinyl flooring options and linoleum installations, ensuring clients have access to the full spectrum of modern flooring solutions.

OA Design Marketing Ltd, through its Flooring Berkshire operations, combines traditional craftsmanship with contemporary flooring technology to serve properties throughout Berkshire. The company specializes in both residential and commercial flooring projects, offering supply, installation, and maintenance services across multiple flooring categories including hardwood, tile, vinyl, carpet, and luxury vinyl options.
