

OA Design Marketing Ltd Expands Premium Flooring Services to Bisham Berkshire Homes

May 21, 2026

BERKSHIRE, UK - May 21, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

OA Design Marketing Ltd, operating as Edge To Edge Home, has announced the expansion of its comprehensive flooring services to residential and commercial properties throughout Bisham and surrounding Berkshire communities. The company now offers an enhanced range of flooring solutions including hardwood, luxury vinyl tile, laminate, and carpet installation services to meet growing demand in the region.

The expansion brings professional flooring expertise to Bisham residents seeking quality installations for both new construction and renovation projects. Edge To Edge Home (Flooring Berkshire) - Flooring Bisham services encompass everything from initial consultation and material selection through professional installation and restoration work. The company serves multiple areas including Cookham, Marlow, Little Marlow, and Hurley, providing both residential and commercial flooring solutions.

"We recognized a significant need for reliable, professional flooring services in Bisham and the surrounding areas," said Oliver Andrews, Director of Operations at OA Design Marketing Ltd. "Our expansion allows us to bring decades of flooring expertise directly to local property owners, whether they need a single room refresh or complete commercial space transformation. We guide clients through every step, from selecting materials that suit their lifestyle and budget to ensuring flawless installation that stands the test of time."

The company offers an extensive selection of flooring options to accommodate diverse aesthetic preferences and functional requirements. Available materials include traditional hardwood, modern luxury vinyl plank and tile options, practical laminate solutions, comfortable carpet installations, and specialized linoleum and vinyl flooring. Each option comes with professional consultation to ensure proper material selection based on traffic patterns, moisture exposure, and design goals.

Commercial clients benefit from specialized services designed to withstand heavy foot traffic while maintaining professional appearance standards. The commercial division provides durable wood flooring, cost-effective laminate solutions, and luxury vinyl tile installations engineered specifically for business environments. These materials offer the aesthetic appeal businesses require while delivering the durability and easy maintenance essential for commercial spaces.

Beyond new installations, the company provides comprehensive flooring repair and restoration services. These services address common issues such as water damage, wear patterns, scratches, and general deterioration that occurs over time. The restoration division specializes in bringing existing floors back to their original condition, often saving property owners significant replacement costs.

Pricing ranges from £10 to £100 per square meter, varying based on material selection, project complexity, and specific installation requirements. The company maintains relationships with leading flooring manufacturers to ensure access to quality materials at competitive prices.

OA Design Marketing Ltd combines traditional craftsmanship with modern installation techniques to deliver flooring solutions that balance durability, comfort, and visual appeal. The company's approach emphasizes thorough consultation, transparent pricing, and professional installation backed by comprehensive warranties. Their team of flooring specialists brings practical knowledge and design expertise to every project, ensuring results that enhance property value and owner satisfaction.
