Chicago, Illinois based Best Rated Elliptical Machines has announced that it has posted its newest review, which is for the Horizon Fitness EX 59-02, to see if it is worth investing in. The site publishes reviews on elliptical equipment to give consumers information such as effectiveness and cost of the machine. Alison Fox who reviewed the equipment says that it "offers impressive features at a bargain, and a great choice for anyone who wants to burn calories at home easily."

Fox's entire review can be seen at <http://www.bestratedellipticalmachines.com/reviews/horizon-fitness-ex-59-02/>. It outlines the specifics of the machine, including cost breakdown and why it is a good choice for most users. The review states that the machine is a good fit for beginners and can be used as the only fitness equipment in a workout plan, offering an allover workout which Fox states is not found in every elliptical machine.

"Some machines aren't going to give you a total body workout, which is unfortunate," Fox says. "The Horizon Fitness EX 59-02 has something for every part of the body, which makes it better than most on the market today."

The review, which can be read at <http://www.bestratedellipticalmachines.com>, states that the Horizon Fitness EX 59-02 is a fully loaded machine that provides a number of benefits to users. It highlights the convenience of the compact design, and states that it also offers all of the features and effectiveness that one would expect in a larger, less mobile machine. It explains the ease with which the machine itself can be set up and taken down.

Fox says that all of their reviews contain unbiased information, and she lists drawbacks to this elliptical machine as well. The review lists the weight of the machine as being its disadvantage, and states that because it is so heavy, it can be challenging for one person to set up alone, or to move from one room to another, although the size is compact.

Best Rated Elliptical Machines regularly publishes new reviews on equipment.
