

HHI Windows and Doors Invites Community to Pledge Through RBC Heritage Birdies for Charity

March 23, 2026

BLUFFTON, SC - March 23, 2026 -

HHI Windows and Doors is encouraging Lowcountry residents, visitors, and businesses to make charitable pledges through the tournament?s Birdies for Charity program during the 2026 RBC Heritage.

The company is focusing its 2026 tournament involvement on inviting the public to turn every birdie made at Harbour Town Golf Links into direct financial support for participating nonprofits across the region.

The Birdies for Charity program provides a way for donors to pledge contributions that are calculated based on the total number of birdies recorded during the tournament. Supporters may either make a flat donation or commit a set amount per birdie, with final contributions determined after play concludes. By tying pledges to on-course performance, the program allows golf fans and community members to follow the tournament while simultaneously supporting charitable work throughout the Lowcountry.

Birdies for Charity webpage to review program details and submit pledges in advance of or during tournament week. Donors can select from approved participating charities, and even modest per-birdie commitments can add up to meaningful totals once all rounds of play are complete. The roofing company says the Birdies for Charity program is a straightforward way for households, small businesses, and corporate partners to participate in the charitable side of the event, regardless of whether they attend in person.

The company?s invitation to pledge through Birdies for Charity builds on its broader pattern of community involvement in the Lowcountry. It has been named the official window and door sponsor of this year?s RBC Heritage. The annual PGA TOUR event played at Harbour Town Golf Links on Hilton Head Island will run from April 13 to 19, 2026.

The RBC Heritage has been a Lowcountry mainstay for more than five decades and will celebrate its 58th season this year. Its host, the Heritage Classic Foundation, donates tournament proceeds to charitable organizations in the Lowcountry.
