April 19, 2016 -

Mr. Rooter Plumbing in Savannah, Georgia, has announced that they have received the Angie's List Super Service Award for 2015. The award is granted to businesses that receive excellent reviews from customers and report those reviews to Angie's List. Angie's List is a website that offers unbiased reviews of businesses, provided by customers themselves to give other consumers the chance to determine whether or not a particular business should earn their trust.

Becky from Mr. Rooter Plumbing of Savannah said, "We are honored to be given this award once again. We love our Angie's List customers!"

This was not the first time that the plumbing company has received this coveted award. The company explains that their focus on customer satisfaction, along with their wide range of services, is what ensures that they are one of the top providers on Angie's List each year.

Mr. Rooter Plumbing has been in business since 1970 and currently has a number of locations in various states. Originally opened in Oklahoma, the plumbing company offers a wide range of services to customers in many cities throughout the nation.

The company states that the Savannah plumbers on their staff work hard to ensure the highest possible level of customer service, a focus that has earned them the prestigious Angie's List award more than once. In addition to providing standard service, they are always available for emergencies, and schedule appointments around their customers' needs.

Mr. Rooter states that they stand behind a set code of values. Now one of seven service brands owned by parent company, The Dwyer Group, each brand focuses on satisfying customers with the utmost in professional and effective plumbing services, while going above and beyond to ensure that all their customers' needs are met. The Savannah location states that their franchise is certainly no different than the others, and that this is the main reason that they have been awarded the honor of being one of the best plumbing agencies in the region according to Angie's List.
