Rivera Tennis Academy Announces Easter Tennis Mixer for Players of All Skill Levels in Spring

April 03, 2026

Spring, Texas - April 03, 2026 -
Rivera Tennis Academy announces its upcoming Easter Tennis Mixer scheduled for April 10th, providing tennis enthusiasts throughout the Spring area an opportunity to participate in a festive sporting event that combines competitive play with seasonal celebration.

The Tennis Academy in Spring TX has designed the event to welcome players across all skill levels, from beginners seeking their first tournament experience to advanced competitors looking for challenging matches. The mixer format allows participants to engage in multiple rounds of play while meeting fellow tennis enthusiasts from the local community.

"The Easter Tennis Mixer represents our commitment to creating inclusive tennis events that bring together players from diverse backgrounds and skill levels," said Alfredo Rivera, Academy Director and former ATP and Davis Cup player. "This event exemplifies how tennis can build community connections while providing excellent competition in a welcoming environment."

The academy encourages interested players to register for the Easter Tennis Mixer through their established payment system via Zelle. The April 10th event joins a robust calendar of activities at the academy, including the Mini Tennis Easter Festival and various training programs scheduled throughout the spring season.

Rivera Tennis Academy has established itself as a comprehensive training facility offering specialized programs for different age groups and skill levels. The academy provides Junior Tennis Lessons, Kids Tennis Lessons, Adult Tennis Lessons, Private Tennis Lessons, Elite Tennis Lessons, and Homeschool Tennis Lessons, each tailored to meet specific developmental needs and athletic goals.

Under the leadership of Alfredo Rivera, whose professional playing career included ATP tour competition and representing Chile in Davis Cup matches, the academy emphasizes technical excellence combined with strategic game development. The coaching methodology draws from Rivera's international competitive experience to provide students with insights typically reserved for professional-level training.

The Tennis Mixer in Spring TX adds to the academy's growing roster of community events, which have included the UTR Spring Circuit, Mini Tennis Festival, and Saint Patrick's Mixer. These events serve dual purposes of providing competitive opportunities and fostering social connections among local tennis players.

Based at the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club in Spring, Texas, Rivera Tennis Academy has earned recognition for its professional coaching staff and comprehensive training programs. The facility maintains a 5.0 rating based on customer reviews, with participants consistently praising the quality of instruction and supportive learning environment.

The academy's services extend beyond traditional lessons to include league organization, local tournament hosting, professional stringing services, and a pro shop featuring Babolat equipment and apparel. This comprehensive approach positions the academy as a complete tennis resource for the Spring community.

Rivera Tennis Academy continues to expand its programming to serve the growing tennis community in Spring, Texas. The Easter Tennis Mixer represents the academy's ongoing dedication to providing diverse tennis experiences that accommodate players at every stage of their tennis journey, from initial introduction to advanced competitive play.
