

Mount Rushmore Tours Expands South Dakota Adventure Offerings for Peak Summer Travel Season in Rapid City

April 29, 2026

RAPID CITY, SD - April 29, 2026 -
Mount Rushmore Tours, the region's established sightseeing operator with over 51 years of experience, announces expanded tour offerings and enhanced itinerary options to meet growing demand for family adventure tours Rapid City experiences during the upcoming summer travel season.

The expansion comes as travel data indicates increased interest in domestic destinations featuring outdoor attractions and historical landmarks. Mount Rushmore Tours has responded by developing comprehensive tour packages that combine the area's most popular attractions with lesser-known destinations throughout the Black Hills region.

"After five decades of guiding visitors through this remarkable landscape, we understand that today's travelers seek more than just a photo opportunity at Mount Rushmore," said Clint Jones, Director of Operations at Mount Rushmore Tours. "Our expanded offerings reflect the evolving needs of modern travelers who want authentic experiences that showcase both the iconic monuments and the hidden treasures of the Black Hills."

The enhanced tour portfolio includes traditional Mount Rushmore excursions alongside specialized experiences such as Fort Hays Old West Town visits, Custer State Park Buffalo Roundup tours, and winter sightseeing adventures. The company's standard Mount Rushmore bus tour spans approximately 9.5 hours and incorporates multiple scenic stops with expert commentary throughout the journey. For those seeking more comprehensive experiences, extended 12.5-hour tours feature regional dining and entertainment, including music variety shows that highlight local culture.

Recognizing the importance of Rapid City SD family travel planning, Mount Rushmore Tours has also introduced complimentary three-day itinerary guides created by their experienced tour guides. These resources help visitors maximize their Black Hills experience by combining organized tours with independent exploration opportunities, including recommendations for scenic routes, photography locations, and local dining establishments often overlooked by typical tourist guides.

Educational components remain central to all tour offerings, with guides providing historical context about the creation of Mount Rushmore, the significance of the Black Hills to Native American cultures, and the geological features that make the region unique. This educational focus particularly appeals to school groups and multi-generational families seeking enriching travel experiences.

The company's commitment to accessibility extends beyond traditional group tours. Private charter services accommodate family reunions, corporate gatherings, and special events, while customized adventure packages allow visitors to tailor experiences to specific interests and schedules. This flexibility has positioned Mount Rushmore Tours as a comprehensive resource for South Dakota adventure trips for families seeking both structured guidance and personalized exploration.

Mount Rushmore Tours operates from Rapid City, South Dakota, serving as the primary departure point for all Black Hills adventures. The company maintains partnerships with regional travel platforms and has earned recognition for consistent service quality over its five-decade history. As one of the area's longest-operating tour companies, Mount Rushmore Tours combines extensive local knowledge with modern amenities, including comfortable transportation and experienced guides familiar with the region's history, culture, and natural attractions.
