Collins Jewelers Serves as Hole Sponsor for Local Golf Tournament

March 30, 2026

DALLAS, GA - March 30, 2026 -
Collins Jewelers served as a Hole Sponsor for a local golf tournament held today in the Paulding County area. The sponsorship placed the store's name on a designated hole, contributing to the event's organization and community fundraising efforts.

The tournament brought together participants from the region for a day of competition and networking. As a Hole Sponsor, Collins Jewelers supported the logistics that enabled the event to proceed, including visibility for attendees throughout the course. This involvement reflects the store's ongoing participation in area activities.

Collins Jewelers operates as a family-owned business spanning four generations. The store maintains a focus on craftsmanship through its jewelry and timepiece offerings. It provides custom jewelry design services, where customers engage in consultations to develop unique pieces with input from experienced jewelers.

Master Jewelers Marty Collins and Keith Collins oversee custom design work. Marty Collins brings more than 47 years of experience to the process. Keith Collins contributes over two decades of expertise. Their roles ensure precision in the creation and refinement of jewelry items.

Additional services at the store include repair and restoration for jewelry and watches. These encompass antique platinum repairs, rhodium plating, stone setting, ring sizing, chain repairs, pearl restringing, engraving, and watch maintenance. Appraisal services for jewelry and gold items are available to support accurate evaluations. Permanent jewelry selections form part of the overall inventory.

The Hole Sponsor role today aligns with Collins Jewelers' pattern of community engagement in Dallas and surrounding locations. The store has participated in various local events over the years, using such opportunities to connect with residents and organizations in Paulding County.

Marty Collins, Co-Owner and Master Jeweler at Collins Jewelers, noted the value of local involvement. "Participation in events like today's golf tournament allows the business to support community initiatives while interacting with area residents," Marty Collins said. "It complements the store's daily operations centered on quality jewelry services."

Keith Collins, Co-Owner and Master Jeweler, added context on the store's approach. "Collins Jewelers has contributed to regional activities across generations, viewing them as an extension of its presence in the community," Keith Collins noted. "Sponsorship of the hole today provided a visible way to engage during the tournament."

The store conducts other operational activities, such as battery replacements for watches on selected dates. These elements integrate into its routine service to customers in the area.

Collins Jewelers integrates its community participation with its core jewelry focus. The business combines long-standing practices with participation in local happenings to sustain its role in the region.

As a jewelry store in Dallas, GA, Collins Jewelers relies on its heritage to uphold standards of quality. The craftsmanship tradition influences all aspects of its work, including custom projects and restorations.

Today's sponsorship of the golf tournament hole extended the store's community ties. It joined other contributors in facilitating the event for participants and organizers. Family oversight at Collins Jewelers supports consistent involvement in such activities.

The business continues its established methods while engaging in current local events. Emphasis remains on quality across its services and external contributions.

Collins Jewelers' role as Hole Sponsor for the golf tournament held today represented one instance of its broader community participation, rooted in its background as a provider of jewelry services.

Collins Jewelers is a family-owned business delivering jewelry services for four generations. The store concentrates on custom design, repair, restoration, and appraisal for customers in Dallas, Georgia, and adjacent areas.

###

For more information about Collins Jewelers, contact the company here:Collins JewelersMarty Collins770-709-6926CollinsJewelers@gmail.com80 Seven Hills Blvd #307, Dallas, GA 30132

Collins Jewelers

Collins Jewelers is a family-owned and operated business providing quality jewelry for four generations. It is our goal to continue this tradition, while instilling new ideas and services that will take your jewelry-buying experience to a new level.

Website: https://collinsjewelers.com/

Email: CollinsJewelers@gmail.com

Phone: 770-709-6926

COLLINS JEWELERS