LAS VEGAS, NV - April 28, 2026 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Maltese Group at Cardinal Financial is proud to announce that founder and Senior MLO Matt Maltese has been named a top originator by Scotsman Guide. The annual ranking recognizes approximately 5,500 of some of the nation's highest-performing mortgage professionals in an industry of more than 200,000 licensed originators nationwide. The achievement underscores the team's commitment to delivering a fast, transparent, and reliable mortgage experience for homebuyers across Southern Nevada.

The Scotsman Guide, a leading resource for mortgage professionals, evaluates originators based on loan volume, customer service excellence, and overall performance. The rankings analyze performance data from mortgage originators across all 50 states and serve as a benchmark for excellence in the mortgage industry, highlighting professionals who demonstrate exceptional performance in loan origination and customer service. The recognition positions The Maltese Group in Las Vegas among the industry's most top-performing mortgage professionals in a highly competitive market.

The team leverages Cardinal Financial's broader platform ? including its living loan engine, Octane® ? to support a more consistent and well-managed mortgage experience, helping borrowers move forward with greater confidence throughout the process. The platform enables faster approvals, greater visibility at every step, and a streamlined path from application to close that benefits both first-time buyers and experienced homeowners alike.

"Being recognized among the top originators from such a vast pool of submissions reinforces our team's dedication to serving our clients," said Matt Maltese, founder of The Maltese Group. "This recognition highlights our focus on helping Southern Nevada families navigate the home financing process with clarity and personalized attention. We work hard every day to earn the trust our clients place in us ? and being named among the best originators in the country is a meaningful reflection of that commitment."

The Maltese Group, based in Las Vegas, has built its reputation through deep knowledge of the local market and a client-focused approach. Since 2010, the Maltese Group has served over 2,000 families across Clark County, including communities in Summerlin, Henderson, and North Las Vegas. The firm specializes in conventional products, FHA products, VA products, jumbo home products, first-time buyer programs, investor products, down payment assistance, and mortgage refinancing. Matt Maltese founded the team with a focus on removing the stress and uncertainty that too often defines the mortgage experience. That founding philosophy ? clear communication, honest guidance, and a process built around the borrower ? continues to shape how The Maltese Group serves clients today.

Southern Nevada's housing market presents unique challenges and opportunities for borrowers. Inventory levels, competitive offer environments, and evolving rate conditions have made the role of an experienced local originator more important than ever. The Maltese Group's familiarity with the Clark County market ? including specific knowledge of neighborhood trends in Henderson, Summerlin, and North Las Vegas ? allows the team to provide guidance that goes beyond rate comparisons and loan structures.
