

Chef's Deal Restaurant Equipment Strengthens Position as Leading Commercial Kitchen Equipment Distributor Through 400+ Manufacturer Partnerships

April 27, 2026

Nashville, Tennessee - April 27, 2026 -

Chef's Deal Restaurant Equipment Store, a wholesale supplier serving foodservice operators across Tennessee and the continental United States, has expanded its manufacturer network to more than 400 commercial kitchen equipment brands, reinforcing its slogan 'More Brands. More Choice. Better Solutions.' This network of formal supplier agreements and distribution partnerships enables the company to provide foodservice operators with access to products spanning every category of commercial kitchen operations.

The Nashville-based distributor's partnerships encompass the full spectrum of commercial kitchen needs, from cooking equipment and refrigeration systems to dishwashing solutions and food preparation tools. This breadth of manufacturer relationships allows Chef's Deal to serve diverse foodservice operations, including independent restaurants, hotel chains, school cafeterias, healthcare facilities, and quick-service establishments.

"Our agreements with over 400 commercial kitchen equipment manufacturers represent a fundamental commitment to ensuring foodservice operators have access to the exact solutions their operations require," said Matthew Yaz, General Manager at Chef's Deal. "This extensive network allows us to match each client with equipment that meets their specific operational demands, budget parameters, and space constraints while maintaining consistent product availability through our robust supply chain."

The scale of Chef's Deal's manufacturer partnerships translates into tangible benefits for foodservice operators. By consolidating relationships with hundreds of brands, the company eliminates the complexity of working with multiple vendors while providing access to competitive pricing across diverse product categories, a particularly valuable advantage for multi-unit operators managing equipment across several locations. This single-source approach streamlines procurement processes and reduces the administrative burden on restaurant operators and kitchen managers.
