

The Dumpster Co. Named March 2026 Business Spotlight by ButtsCountyLocal.com

April 21, 2026

JACKSON, GA - April 21, 2026 -

The Dumpster Co., a family-owned roll-off dumpster rental company headquartered in Jackson, Georgia, has been selected as the March 2026 Business Spotlight by ButtsCountyLocal.com, a community business directory and media platform serving Butts County and the surrounding region. The recognition highlights the company?s growing footprint in Middle Georgia and its reputation for reliable, straightforward service in an industry where both qualities are often in short supply.

ButtsCountyLocal.com?s monthly Business Spotlight program features one area business that demonstrates a strong community connection, consistent customer trust, and a track record of service within Butts County. The Dumpster Co. is the inaugural recipient of the spotlight, which includes a dedicated feature on the ButtsCountyLocal.com website, a full business profile in the site?s directory, and social media promotion across the platform?s channels.

Founded in Jackson, The Dumpster Co. provides roll-off dumpster rentals ranging from 10-yard containers suitable for residential garage cleanouts to 40-yard units designed for large-scale commercial construction and demolition projects. The company serves homeowners, general contractors, roofing crews, demolition teams, property managers, and commercial property owners across a service area that spans more than a dozen communities in Middle Georgia, including Monticello, Eatonton, Locust Grove, McDonough, Covington, Conyers, Madison, Milledgeville, and Griffin.

The company currently maintains three Google Business Profile locations: its primary location in Jackson, a second in Monticello, and a third in Eatonton. According to publicly available Google reviews, The Dumpster Co. holds a 4.9-star rating across more than 167 reviews at its Jackson location, with customers frequently citing responsive communication, on-time delivery, and transparent pricing as distinguishing factors.

?We started this company because we saw a need in Butts County for dependable, no-nonsense dumpster service,? said Joe Hardin, a spokesperson for The Dumpster Co. ?When a contractor has a crew on-site and needs a container there at seven in the morning, they can?t afford to wonder whether it?s going to show up. When a homeowner is cleaning out their parents? estate, the last thing they want to deal with is hidden fees or surprise charges. We built this business around eliminating those problems, and being recognized by ButtsCountyLocal.com tells us the community has noticed.?

The dumpster rental industry in Georgia has seen steady demand growth in recent years, driven by residential renovation activity, new construction in exurban counties south of Atlanta, and an increase in commercial property turnover. Butts County, located roughly 50 miles south of Atlanta along Interstate 75, has experienced some of that growth firsthand, with both residential and commercial development contributing to demand for waste hauling and debris removal services.

The Dumpster Co. operates on a model that emphasizes flat-rate pricing, same-day or next-day delivery when available, and flexible rental terms for both short-term residential projects and long-term commercial accounts. The company offers online booking through its website at mydumpsterco.com, in addition to phone-based scheduling at (678) 306-9993.

The ButtsCountyLocal.com spotlight also noted the company?s commercial service as a key differentiator. In commercial construction, dumpster logistics can directly affect project timelines and labor costs. A delayed container pickup or missed delivery window can idle a crew, push back inspections, or create safety and compliance issues on active job sites. The Dumpster Co.?s ability to maintain scheduling reliability across a broad service territory has contributed to repeat business from contractors and property managers who operate across multiple counties.

?What we do is not complicated,? Hardin added. ?We deliver a dumpster, you fill it up, and we haul it away. But doing that consistently, on time, at a fair price, across a wide service area?that?s what separates companies in this business. We take a lot of pride in the fact that people call us back for their next project.?

ButtsCountyLocal.com, which launched in 2025, operates as a free local business directory connecting residents with area businesses, events, and community resources. The platform?s Business Spotlight program is open to any Butts County?area business through a nomination process and carries no cost to the featured company. The directory includes business listings, a community blog, an events calendar, and a deals section and is an independently operated platform with no affiliation with any government agency or local municipal entity.

The Dumpster Co.?s full business profile, including service details, customer reviews, and a photo gallery, is available on the ButtsCountyLocal.com directory at buttscountylocal.com/businesses/the-dumpster-co.
