Azalea Hospitality Announces 2027 Masters Tournament Package Reservations Now Open

April 27, 2026

AUGUSTA, GA - April 27, 2026 -
Azalea Hospitality announces that reservations are now open for the 2027 Masters Tournament at Augusta National Golf Club, with packages available for the championship scheduled April 11-14, 2027. The company has launched its booking system for various ticket and hospitality options as golf fans begin planning for the prestigious tournament four years in advance.

The announcement comes as demand for Masters Tournament access continues to grow, with the annual event attracting spectators from around the world to Augusta, Georgia. Azalea Hospitality now offers multiple package tiers including ticket-only badges, hotel accommodations, and private housing options with various amenities. The masters tickets 2027 packages range from single-day badges to comprehensive four-day experiences covering the entire tournament.

"Opening reservations for the 2027 Masters Tournament allows golf enthusiasts to secure their plans well in advance for this major championship," said a spokesperson for Azalea Hospitality. "The Masters requires special badges rather than traditional tickets, and our experience in managing these logistics helps ensure smooth experiences for all attendees."

Azalea Hospitality has structured its offerings to accommodate various preferences and budgets. Standard packages include tournament badges for specific days, while expanded options incorporate private housing near Augusta National, transportation services, valet parking, private restrooms, and on-site concierge support. The company also provides masters tickets practice rounds, which grant access to the tournament's preparation days on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday before competition begins.

Practice round badges have gained popularity among golf fans who prefer the relaxed atmosphere of preparation days when patrons can walk the entire course and observe players during their practice sessions. These days offer photography opportunities and course access not permitted during competition rounds, when movement is restricted and cameras are prohibited.

The Masters Tournament stands as one of golf's four major championships, held annually during the first week of April at Augusta National Golf Club. The event features the world's top professional golfers competing for the iconic green jacket, with traditions including the Champions Dinner, Par 3 Contest, and the ceremonial opening tee shots by honorary starters.

Azalea Hospitality has managed Masters Tournament packages for multiple decades, developing operational expertise in navigating Augusta's unique requirements. The company coordinates logistics including badge distribution, housing arrangements, and transportation planning for the thousands of patrons who attend through their services each year.

The 2027 tournament will mark the 91st playing of the Masters, continuing a tradition that began in 1934. Augusta National Golf Club maintains strict protocols for attendance, limiting the number of badges available and requiring all attendees to follow specific guidelines regarding behavior, attire, and prohibited items.

Reservations for 2027 packages are being accepted through Azalea Hospitality's wait list system, which provides priority access as packages become available. The company reports increased early interest compared to previous years, reflecting growing advance planning among golf fans and corporate groups.

Azalea Hospitality specializes in golf tournament hospitality services, providing ticketing and travel packages for major championships including the Masters, U.S. Open, The Open Championship, PGA Championship, and Ryder Cup. The company maintains membership in the International Association of Golf Tour Operators and has established relationships with tournament organizers and hospitality providers at major golf venues.
