

Strong Community Response to Birdies for Charity Marks 2026 RBC Heritage

April 27, 2026

BLUFFTON, SC - April 27, 2026 -
HHI Windows and Doors reported strong community support for the 2026 RBC Heritage Birdies for Charity program, following tournament week.

The Bluffton-based window and door replacement company devoted its tournament sponsorship efforts to encouraging residents, visitors, and local businesses to make pledges tied to the number of birdies recorded at Harbour Town Golf Links.

The 2026 RBC Heritage, held April 16?19 at Harbour Town Golf Links, drew a world-class field to South Carolina?s PGA TOUR Signature Event. The company also celebrated Matt Fitzpatrick?s playoff win.

The event again drew large, plaid-clad galleries to Sea Pines Resort, continuing the RBC Heritage?s long-standing tradition as a spring golf fixture. The tournament attracts strong attendance and contributes to the local economy through visitor spending and tourism-related activity.

Based on post-event observations, the pledge structure and foundation match provided practical ways for homeowners, small business owners, and visiting golf fans to support the Lowcountry during the Harbour Town competition through Birdies for Charity. HHI Windows and Doors reported strong donor feedback and steady pledge interest during tournament week. This reflects strong community engagement with Birdies for Charity. The Heritage Classic Foundation will announce the 2026 charitable distribution totals after its annual review.

?Harbour Town offers golf, history, and atmosphere. But Birdies for Charity lets everyone make a lasting impact,? said Richard Barron, owner of HHI Windows and Doors. ?As a local business, it?s important our sponsorship highlights programs that turn the event into genuine support for Lowcountry nonprofits. We were encouraged to see residents, visitors, and small businesses involved this year.?

Over time, HHI Windows and Doors has paired its core services with support for housing projects and nonprofit initiatives. This supports the connection between safer homes and resilient neighborhoods.

For the 2026 tournament, HHI Windows and Doors focused its sponsorship on active community participation. The company prioritized engagement over logo placement. Company representatives directed spectators and community members to the official Birdies for Charity webpage. There, visitors could review details, select approved charities, and make pledges before or during tournament week. Birdies for Charity provided an accessible way to support regional causes through per-birdie and flat donation pledges.

For over a decade, the company has served homeowners in Bluffton, Hilton Head Island, Beaufort, and nearby areas. It focuses on energy-efficient, coastal-appropriate window and door replacements. HHI Windows and Doors operates a renovated showroom at 32 Malphrus Rd., Unit 117, Bluffton, SC 29910.

The showroom features full-size window and door installations and a curated selection of coastal products. Themed spaces allow clients to compare styles, materials, and configurations in realistic settings. This supports informed decisions about replacement and upgrades. This focus on education and long-term value reflects the company?s approach to community partnerships.?
