Rivera Tennis Academy Announces UTR Spring Tennis Circuit Tournament for May 16th

May 06, 2026

Spring, Texas - May 06, 2026 -
Rivera Tennis Academy has announced the upcoming UTR Spring Tennis Circuit Tournament scheduled for May 16th at the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club in Spring, Texas. The tournament represents the fifth event in a six-tournament circuit series, offering competitive matchplay opportunities for tennis players of all skill levels.

The tournament will feature co-ed singles matchplay with specialized brackets designed to accommodate players across various Universal Tennis Rating levels. Players can register for the UTR Tennis Tournament through the official UTR Sports platform, with both member and non-member pricing options available. The event continues the academy's tradition of hosting competitive tennis events that serve the greater Spring, Texas tennis community.

"This tournament series provides players with valuable competitive experience in a structured environment that promotes both skill development and sportsmanship," said Alfredo Rivera, Director of Rivera Tennis Academy and former ATP and Davis Cup player. "The UTR rating system ensures fair matchplay by pairing players of similar abilities, which creates more engaging and competitive matches for everyone involved."

The tournament location at Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club provides participants with access to quality court surfaces and facilities. The venue has hosted numerous academy events throughout the year, establishing itself as a reliable location for competitive tennis in Spring, Texas.

Under the leadership of Alfredo Rivera, whose professional playing experience includes ATP tour competition and representing Chile in Davis Cup play, the academy has established itself as a premier tennis education institution in the Spring area. The coaching staff emphasizes fundamental skill development, strategic thinking, and competitive preparation across all program levels.

Rivera Tennis Tournaments have become a cornerstone of the local tennis calendar, attracting participants from throughout the Houston metropolitan area. The May 16th event marks a significant milestone as the circuit approaches its conclusion, with only one tournament remaining after this date. The academy has structured the tournament to accommodate various playing levels, including a specialized division for players with UTR ratings of 1.5 or lower, ensuring accessibility for developing players.

Beyond tournament hosting, Rivera Tennis Academy offers comprehensive tennis instruction for all ages and skill levels. The academy's programs include junior development, kids' introductory lessons, adult improvement courses, private coaching sessions, elite player training, and specialized homeschool tennis education. Each program is designed to meet specific developmental needs while maintaining the academy's commitment to technical excellence and strategic understanding of the game.

The academy maintains partnerships with equipment manufacturers including Babolat, providing students and tournament participants with access to professional-grade equipment and stringing services. This comprehensive approach to tennis education and competition has earned the academy recognition throughout the local tennis community.

Rivera Tennis Academy continues to expand its tournament offerings and educational programs to serve the growing tennis community in Spring and surrounding areas. The May 16th UTR Spring Tennis Circuit Tournament represents another opportunity for players to test their skills, earn UTR ratings points, and participate in the vibrant local tennis scene.
