Rivera Tennis Academy Announces UTR Spring Tennis Circuit Tournament for May 16th in Texas

May 20, 2026

Spring, Texas - May 20, 2026 -
Rivera Tennis Academy has announced the upcoming UTR Spring Tennis Circuit Tournament scheduled for May 16th at Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club in Spring, Texas. The tournament represents the fifth event in a six-tournament circuit series, offering competitive matchplay opportunities for tennis players of all skill levels.

The tournament will feature co-ed singles matchplay with specialized brackets designed to accommodate players across the rating spectrum, including a dedicated division for players with a UTR rating of 1.5 or lower. Registration is now open through the official UTR platform, with both member and non-member pricing options available.

"This tournament series provides an excellent opportunity for players to gain competitive experience and improve their UTR ratings in a structured environment," said Alfredo Rivera, Director of Rivera Tennis Academy and former ATP and Davis Cup player. "We have designed the bracket system to ensure competitive matches for players at every level, from beginners to advanced competitors."

The May 16th event continues the academy's commitment to hosting regular competitive opportunities for the Spring tennis community. Previous tournaments in the series have attracted players from throughout the greater Houston area, with participants ranging from junior players seeking tournament experience to adult players looking to test their skills in organized competition.

Players interested in participating can register for the UTR Tennis Tournament through the Universal Tennis Rating platform. The tournament format ensures multiple matches for all participants, with matchplay structured according to UTR ratings to provide competitive pairings throughout the event.

The Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club location provides an ideal venue for the tournament, with multiple courts available to accommodate the expected field of participants. The facility's central Spring location makes it accessible for players from surrounding communities.

Rivera Tennis Tournaments have become a cornerstone of the local tennis scene, offering regular competitive opportunities that complement the academy's comprehensive training programs. The tournaments serve players enrolled in the academy's various programs, including junior development, adult improvement courses, and elite training sessions, as well as players from the broader tennis community.

"We see these tournaments as an essential component of player development," added Rivera. "Competition provides the opportunity to apply skills learned in practice while building mental toughness and match experience that cannot be replicated in training sessions alone."

Rivera Tennis Academy operates comprehensive tennis programs for all ages and skill levels under the direction of Alfredo Rivera, whose professional playing experience includes competing on the ATP tour and representing Chile in Davis Cup competition. The academy offers junior tennis lessons, kids programs, adult instruction, private coaching, elite player development, and specialized homeschool tennis education. In addition to its instructional programs, the academy maintains a pro shop with Babolat equipment and provides professional stringing services. The academy has established itself as a premier tennis training facility in Spring, Texas, earning consistent five-star reviews from students and parents for its professional coaching staff and supportive learning environment.
