Rivera Tennis Academy Announces Summer Tennis Camp Registration for Spring Season

May 13, 2026

Spring, Texas - May 13, 2026 -
Rivera Tennis Academy has opened registration for its comprehensive summer tennis camp program, running from January 1 through August 8, with sessions available from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. daily. The Tennis Academy in Spring TX will offer specialized instruction for players of all ages and skill levels at the Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club facility.

The extended summer program provides flexible scheduling options designed to accommodate families throughout the spring and summer months. The academy's dual session format allows participants to choose morning or evening time slots based on their availability and preferences.

"This summer camp represents our commitment to making quality tennis instruction accessible to the entire community," said Alfredo Rivera, Academy Director and former ATP and Davis Cup player. "The extended timeframe from January through August ensures that students can develop their skills progressively while maintaining consistency in their training throughout the season."

The Summer Tennis Camp in Spring, TX will feature age-appropriate instruction grouped by skill level, ensuring optimal learning environments for beginners through advanced players. The program incorporates technical skill development, strategic game play, physical conditioning, and match preparation tailored to each participant's developmental stage.

Rivera Tennis Academy offers comprehensive tennis programs including junior tennis lessons, kids tennis lessons, adult tennis lessons, private tennis lessons, elite tennis lessons, and specialized homeschool tennis lessons. Each program follows a structured curriculum developed by Rivera, who brings international competitive experience from his professional tennis career representing Chile.

The academy's location at Forest Oaks Swim & Racquet Club provides participants with access to quality court facilities and amenities. The venue's established infrastructure supports the academy's mission of delivering professional-level instruction in a supportive environment.

"Our summer camp curriculum emphasizes both technical excellence and character development through sport," added Rivera. "We focus on building fundamental skills while fostering discipline, sportsmanship, and a genuine appreciation for tennis that extends beyond the court."

The academy's teaching methodology combines traditional coaching techniques with modern training approaches, incorporating video analysis, fitness conditioning, and mental preparation strategies. Instructors work closely with each participant to identify individual strengths and areas for improvement, creating personalized development plans within the group setting.

Beyond regular lessons, the academy hosts leagues and local tournaments throughout the year, providing competitive opportunities for students to apply their skills in match situations. The facility also maintains a pro shop featuring Babolat products and offers professional racquet stringing services.

Registration for the summer camp is currently open, with enrollment available for single sessions or the full program duration. The academy recommends early registration as sessions are grouped by age and skill level to maintain optimal instructor-to-student ratios.

Located in TX, Rivera Tennis Academy has established itself as a premier tennis instruction facility serving the greater Spring area. The academy's comprehensive approach to tennis education combines technical instruction with athletic development and competitive preparation, creating pathways for recreational enjoyment and competitive excellence in the sport.
